A few years ago Baker City or county gave scarcely a thought to agriculture; now that is their main reliance.

SOCIETY.

In the presence of 50 guests, Miss Laura Green was united in marriage to Reuben E. Wills at the home of the bride in this city last evening at six o'clock. Sherwood William's beautifully rendered solo "Bed Me Love," gave warning of the wedding's approach, and as Miss Ruth Bush rendered Lohengren's wedding march immediately after the vocal solo, Ralph Reynolds the best man, and Miss Ivy Long the bridesmaid ushered into a bowered corner of the family parlor the principals of the affair. Rev. C. E. Deal used the impressive ceremony in declaring the popular young people man and wife.

F. H. Green's roomy home was filled with guests. Miss Olive Massee received at the door. Immediately after the ceremony the event took on an very informal color, and while the guest's attendant served punch, the guests were prepared for the three-course luncheon served by Mrs. A. W. Nelson and Misses Frances Massee, Ruth Bush, Gertrude Ralston and Nora Fritts.

The luncheon comprised:
Bread and butter sandwiches.
Pressed chicken.
Olives.
Shrimp salad and wafers.
Pineapple sherbet.
Cake and punch.

Extreme taste marked every detail of the wedding. Decorations were superb. The parlor where the marriage occurred was robed in sweetpeas and ferns in great profusion, the guests' room in lillies and sweetpeas and the dining room was made a thing beautiful by tasty arrangements of sweetpeas and ferns. Throughout the residence were innumerable red candles, each candelabra scattering in profusion mellow beams of light on the artistically decorated walls.

The bride was one of the city's most talented young ladies. Her musical skill and accomplishments, and her genial personality have won her praise and friends, even though she has been here but a year, coming to La Grande with her parents from Redwing, Minn. The richness and quantity of the presents from here and her eastern friends speak in truthful words of her unlimited popularity. Mr. Wills has many friends in La Grande, especially those who were his schoolmates at

O. A. C. A rousing Zip! Boom! Bee! from the O. A. C. grads in attendance, cheered the bridal party on over life's sea. He is in business at Lebanon, for which place they left last evening taking with them congratulations and best wishes from their wide circle of friends in this city.

THE BEST PLACE

Without a doubt the best place to get all kinds of vegetables, strawberries, cherries, oranges, bananas and lemons, is at the Geddes Grocery, they have the best and the freshest; and should you want nice crisp sweet or sour pickles, just call them up; and don't forget that 25c coffee, it takes the place of your 40c coffee. Just a shipment of Swifts ham and bacon.
