The wise men of today are those who on the slightest trouble with their eye sight have that trouble investigated by a reputable optician.
Many among wearing glasses today could have had his trouble remedied by the wearing of glasses for a short period—if he attended to it in time.

Elgin And La Grande Tied For Second Place In League.

Scenes have shifted to and fro in the Eastern Oregon Amateur league the last two weeks with lightning-like rapidity, for following on the disbandment of the Cellar champions, Baker City, the Huntington gateway players, holding a strong clench hand on the pennant, have now gone the way of the Union team and are no more.

Lack of finances are said to be responsible for the gateway team was conducted on an expensive basis. The team commenced to go to pieces when Spoonover packed his grip.

It is presumed that Baker City has grabbed some of the Huntington players for they have strengthened remarkable in the last two days.

By the dropout of Huntington, Cove leads the league with Elgin and La Grande tied for second place.

The new schedule is arranged and now and if there is not a change before Sunday the team from this place will go to Elgin, although it may be changed so that the team from Cove will come here.

KILPATRICK WILL LEAVE

Frank Kilpatrick is today packing his household furniture, preparatory to moving to Natron, near Eugene, Oregon, where he has purchased a fruit tract and will make his future home. Natron is the terminus of the interior-puncturing road now being actually built, and Mr. Kilpatrick believes he has found a good location.

Through 20 years of residence here, Mr. Kilpatrick and his family have become well known and a large circle of friends will regret to see them go. Fraternally, Mr. Kilpatrick has become prominent, especially in Masonic circles, and even now holds a high office in the local chapter. He retired from active business, that of implement dealing, a year ago and since then has been cleaning up his business slate to take his departure to western Oregon. His family with the exception of James Kilpatrick, will go with him.
