ANOTHER CROWD HERE

DAILY INFLUX OF HOMESEEKERS NOW.

Indiana Group Here, Anxious to Invest Locally.

La Grande laureates have sung songs of boost about outsiders coming here to look for land locations, have "piped" up exultantly at the arrival of one or two a week, but the past 10 days have seen half-dozen and more here daily. As soon as one party takes its departure another comes and real estate men are kept busy continually showing prospective buyers the valley. Automobiles whiz in and out with homeseekers.

Following on the heels of the two parties here yesterday, another party of four from Perrysville, Indiana, arrived in La Grande last evening and today toured the fruit centers. Three of them are farmers who have been in Eastern Oregon and Washington, and aside from what they saw in the Flathead reservation, have found nothing to compare with the activities they found here.

The fourth, Lewis W. Morgan, is now a general merchant, but was at one time a newspaper man at Perrysville. The party consists of C. C. J. C. and J. B. Parsons and Lewis Morgan.

Two of the Parsons are out west to stay and will buy somewhere and the other two are not so anxious to remain, unless they find something to their particular liking.

This party like all others, are here for one of two causes, or perhaps both; reading Union county descriptive literature or being sent here as a result of a visit to the fair where Union county's exhibit is claiming attention.

LAND OFFICE DECISION.

Heppner Man Denied Homestead Because he Was Marshal.

A decision has been handed down by Register Bramwell in the case of United States against John W. Rasmus of Heppner. The homestead proof is denied on grounds that Mr. Rasmus was for four years employed by the city of Heppner as marshal, while attempting to hold down a homestead. He affirms in his defense that he hired men to do the work and he lived on the homestead, but the records show that he drew a salary from the city of Heppner while he alleges that he hired men to do the work.

1ST MESSAGE RECEIVED

The first message from R. Plant, who has started in his home-made automobile for Medford a distance of 300 miles, was received this morning and from the tone and contents of the letter one would judge that he was having considerable trouble. The following is the letter and will tell its own story:

Meacham, Ore., 8, 12, 09, 5:30 a. m. Kingsley & Coger, First Message.

Broke one hind spring. We had to pull up hills with ropes. Our two grips fell off going down hill and we ran over them. We had on all brakes, but could not hold it. We ran against a stump about 8 o'clock last night and tore off the muffler about one-half mile from Meacham.

Yours Resp., ROBERT PLANT.

BURROS PASS THROUGH.

Carload of Burros Passed Through This Morning For Idaho.

A car load of burros passed through La Grande this morning bound for northern Idaho, where they will be used to pack to the mines. There were 45 in number and were secured in southern Idaho near Mountain Home.

The cost the owner $7.50 per and after the freight was paid and the cost of help considered, they cost something like $35. per. The owner stated that there was a large bunch running loose around Mountain Home and anyone that will pick them up is the owner.

COLLIER FOR PRESIDENT

Up to the present time there are no other names mentioned for the office of president of the Commercial club, but that of John Collier. It seems that all are more than satisfied with the work of this man. Mr. Collier has certainly filled the office with credit to himself and has done untold of good for the Grande Ronde and La Grande. He has never refused his aid when it was requested, and always worked with that vim and vigor which has went far to bring La Grande to the front. The election of officers take place at the meeting of the club on next Monday night.

She is supposed to have died from the effects of eating green fruit. The funeral services will be held at the Catholic church Sunday afternoon. All friends of the family are invited to pay the last respects to little Miss Mabel Swartz.
