FIND SECURITIES ARE GOOD

EASTERN TRUST AGENT PRAISES LOCAL CONDITIONS.

Every Security And Loan In Two Counties In Perfect Condition.

J. W. Hamilton, representing the Hamilton Loan & Trust company of Virginia, finds Union and Baker counties so financially sound that every paper of investment and security which that firm holds in these two sections, is first class collateral and safe. Mr. Hamilton has been examining and inspecting the company's papers in these two counties, and this morning made the statement that he had yet to find a paper that was not as good as gold. Mr. Hamilton took a side trip through the county today, and will return again this evening if

TROUBADORS GOOD.

Good Sized Crowd Witnessed an Excellent Show.

A fair sized audience witnessed the performance of the Dixie Troubadors at the Steward Opera house last night. The show was good in all parts and was greatly appreciated by the audience. Geo. Taylor as "Silas Green" done his part excellently while everybody greatly enjoyed the singing of Sarah Green, the Alabama Nightingale.

A Very Strong Number.

One of the many celebrated attractions which the lecture course committee has been able to secure for the course at the Central church this fall and winter is the Clare Vaughan Wales Concert and Comedy company. At the end of the season last year this company closed its seventh season of one gigan success. Florence Adele Bensons at present in Paris studying under the most competent instructors, both vocal and instrumental. She returns for the opening of the season as a member of the Wales company, and the manager of the course feels sure that she will be greeted by the La Grande people with genuine pleasure.
