All arrangements will practically be made on this trip and when they return actual work of securing men will commence and dirt will be flying on the project.

Floods at Pueblo.

PUEBLO, Colo., Aug. 18.—The worst flood in recent years is threatening a half dozen towns and causing tremendous property damage. Fed by heavy rains, the Arkansas is flooded and is rising to the danger point. The greatest damage so far is at Florence and Howard.

It is feared there are fatalities there, but communication is cut off.

General Booth's Sight Failing.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—General William Booth, for years at the head of the Salvation Army, who is threatened with total blindness, has abandoned his projected tour of the provinces, and will remain in England for treatment. A recent operation for cataract was unsuccessful.
