Resolution of condolence, 5c a line.

We have lived through another attack of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

We have been informed that several bright eyed babies are being talked of to be entered at the baby show at the Union county exposition.

That name, "The Union County Exposition," sounds rather big, nevertheless this exposition will be the largest thing ever carried out in this county.

The good road idea seems to have resulted in a demand for better streets in La Grande. For some time the roads leading into the city were much better than the streets. This will act in the near future.

La Grande is still lacking the leader to launch the first chautauqua in Eastern Oregon. We are one step nearer, however, in the acquisition of Riverside park, an ideal place for such a gathering.

Frank Conley while in the city yesterday stated he had quit heading for a few days until his grain ripened. A few more days like yesterday and all the grain in the fields in this county will be ready for machines.

President Taft did not say anything until after the investigation inquiry into the hazing of young Sutton at West Point. When he did speak he simply ordered several of the cadets dismissed, the object was to break up the barbaric system of hazing, which is always cowardly, as the victim is simply over powered by a superiority of numbers.

Insurance men report that more grain has been insured during the past ten days than there has been during the past several years. So few accidents have happened in this valley that little if any insurance has been carried by the farmers on their crops. The three losses this season has resulted in not a few taking out policies.

First it was the cable and electric street cars that were going to put the horse out of commission, then the bicycle was thought to put the finishing touches to the faithful animal of burden; next to follow was the automobile, but the fact remains that at no time within the history of our country do horses bring in the markets the prices they now do, and have prevailed for the past few years. The airship is next.

No Controversy This Term.

DENVER, Aug. 20.—It was definitely shown today that the Pinchot-Ballinger controversy won't enter in deliberations of trans-Mississippi congress here.

License to Wed.

A marriage license was issued this afternoon to Charles Beddingfield and Agnes Dove, both of La Grande. The young couple were married this afternoon by County Judge J. C. Henry.
