The third crop of alfalfa is nearly ready to cut, and those who have water will have a good yield.

Several orchardists are thinning their fruit, experience has demonstrated that this is profitable, as by thinning, the pack contains a much larger per cent of commercial stock.

It is about time for some old Indian squaw to predict one of the hardest winters for several years, or for some observing naturalist to note that the squirrels are laying in a much larger supply of winter supplies than usual.

It is quite probable that some arrangement will be made whereby a freight train service may provide additional passenger service on the branch line. Persons from this end of the line are compelled to remain over night in going to Elgin or Walla Walla under the new schedule.

Those who took their stoves out for the summer missed them this morning to take the chill off. The entire northwest will be a summer resort in the future, when the millions of people living in the heated sections of this great country will seek their outings where refreshing cool nights are the rule and not the exception.

Seeing in many instances leads to believing. The thousands upon thousands of eastern people who have visited the northwest during this season will all go home singing our praises and if they do not come themselves they will induce others. We are entering upon an era of prosperity and development that will greatly excel any other decade.

No primary nominating law will be acceptable to the people that permits members of one party participating in the nominations of another. Oregon's law attempts to do this, in fact the law on this point is much stronger than in many states yet it has been abused, and until it is made stronger than it is it will not prove satisfactory to quite a portion of our citizens, until this is prohibited the primary law is not permitted to have a fair chance and obtain the objects of its mission. The present law is not abused however, any more than the old system of holding primaries.

INTERENTAINEDSOLOISTS AND MUSICIANS ARE SPECIAL GUESTS.

Influential Members of Choir Members Entertained at Homes.

World-famed and near-world famed guests in the city today have been objects of social entertainment at various homes. Some of the brightest galaxy of musicians and singers that have been in La Grande for many years were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Geddes today at 902 O street. The party was breakfasted, and took luncheon and dinner at the same place. The personnel of the Geddes house party is: Prof. Evan Stephens, conductor of the most famous choir in the world, Bishop David Smith and his brother George Smith, who together are two of the three bishops and counsellors that govern the entire Mormon church, Mrs. Edwards, the popular soloist, who is well known here, and Mrs. Barnes and John Robinson, other noted soloists of the choir.

Prof. McClellan, who is undisputed leader of pipe organ manipulators in the world, by virtue of contests won where the world's famous players contested, was a guest during the day with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore, 802 O street.

J. D. Giles, Mr. McClellan's manager and Mr. Best, the noted tenor, who is booked with German grand opera, are also guests with Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

Prof. Kimball, another man of much importance to the choir, whose title and position is assistant director, was a guest with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nibley Jr., 1310 N avenue.

NEW PASTOR
PLEASES ALL

Both congregations at the Methodist church, morning and evening were delighted with the sermons of their new pastor, Rev. H. E. McCleod, who arrived yesterday morning to commence his work. Mrs. McCleod, who arrived and children are expected to arrive within a few days.

Rev. McCleod impresses everyone in who he comes in contact with, as being thoroughly practical and having had a wide experience in dealing with the public, both as a pastor and a business man, the congregation is delighted. Rev. McCleod is a pleasant convincing speaker, a clear thinker and the church enters upon the new year with enthusiasm.
