BROTHER DROWNED

Bob O'Connell and George O'Connell, proprietors of the O'Connell billiard parlors, were notified yesterday of the accidental drowning of a younger brother at Deloros, Colorado. Bob O'Connell left yesterday for Derango, Colorado, the family home, where the funeral will be held.
 No details of the drowning were received in the meager messages, but the victim of the accident is the youngest child of the family, being 17 years of age. George O'Connell was formerly a conductor here going out of the service when he lost both feet in an accident here some time ago.

SCHEDULE IS KNOTTY

Harriman's array of overland passenger trains are now running according to the new schedule, as each of the new trains have passed through La Grande by today. Thus far it has been difficult for the ticket office to answer all the inquiries about the new schedule, and the Observer again publishes the new time table for the benefit of those who may have failed to master it last Saturday.
 Westbound—No. 5, Oregon Washington special, arrive La Grande 10:10 p. m.; No. 9, Portland Express, arrive 8 p. m.; No. 7, Portland Special, arrive 8:25 a. m. (no change); No. 11, Pacific Express, arrives 5:25 a. m.
 Eastbound—No. 10, Salt Lake Express, arrive 7:40 a. m.; No. 12, arrives 8:55 p. m.; No. 8 Chicago Special, arrives 8:30 p. m.; No. 6, Oregon and Washington Limited, arrives 4:35 a. m.

"Struck Gas."
 "Struck Gas," a lively, sensational comedy, full of action and bright lines, was the play at the Pastime theatre last night. Considering the fact that the play was produced with one day's work it was remarkably well produced. There was a few hitches, of course, but they are soon forgotten by the comedy situation that follows each other with great rapidity. The cast as a whole is a good one, and the house was packed as usual. The same play will be given tonight.

Notice.
 Any couple contemplating marriage, will do well to communicate with J. E. Reynolds, secretary of the Union county exposition.
