THE NEW GRAYS AND GREENS WHICH ARE THE PRE-EMINENT SHADES FOR THE COMING SEASON ARE SHOWN IN AN EXCEPTIONALLY ATTRACTIVE ASSORTMENT, AND WHEN WE SAY WE HAVE AN EXCEPTIONALLY ATTRACTIVE SHOWING OF CLOTHING AS CAN BE PRODUCED, IT IS NOT THE USUAL SPECIES OF "HOT AIR" SO FREQUENTLY USED FOR ANNOUNCEMENTS. YOU MUST REMEMBER THAT EVERY PROMINENT CLOTHING HOUSE IN AMERICA SENDS THEIR REPRESENTATIVES TO US WITH THEIR LINES. NO HOUSE HAS A MONOPOLY OF GOOD CLOTHING, BUT WE FEEL CERTAIN THAT WE OFFER YOU GARMENTS THAT EXCEL OTHERS IN FIT AND IN STYLE AND THEY ARE CERTAINLY SUPERIOR IN WORKMANSHIP AND PERMANENT VALUE. AT THE SAME TIME WE KNOW THEM TO BE CONSIDERABLY LOWER IN PRICE THAN OTHER LINES EQUALLY WELL KNOWN. IT WILL BE WORTH YOUR WHILE AND TROUBLE TO INVESTIGATE.

WORK BEGIN TOMORROW

John Wilson of this city has been awarded the position of foreman of the road construction gang that tomorrow goes to work on the Beaver Creek project. Mr. Lightner of Portland, who has been here a short time visiting friends will be foreman of the clearing gang. Mr. Stilwell, also of this city, has been appointed commissary superintendent, and a cook has been selected by Superintendent Dutch. With this list of details attended to and the telephone contract about to be closed, construction, in the way of preliminary work, of the Beaver Creek water project will commence tomorrow morning.

Monday was the day set originally to cast the first shovel of dirt, but inability to get men caused the delay. Today Mr. Dutch has a sufficient number on his list to start things going and as more men apply, he will take them in.

A Village of Tents.

Through the Bolton & Bodmer company Mr. Dutch has ordered a quantity of tents sufficient to house all the white men on the project, and to be used as commissaries. These tents will be ready for use as soon as they arrive which is scheduled for early this week. When tents sufficient to shelter 200 or 250 men are erected the headquarters will resemble a garrison. It is planned to make sanitary conditions perfect and the camps will be established at such points as to make the minimum number of moves.

The crew to go up tomorrow will be small, but sufficient to start things. The men from here who will act as supernumeraries and overseers are ready to march to the front at the command from Mr. Dutch.

SHIP BODY FOR BURIAL

The community was grieved this morning to learn of the death of Mrs. Mary Kaimback, ather home at Third and Washington, last night. She had been down town at a late hour waiting for a train and on her arrival home suddenly complained of being ill. She died 10 minutes afterwards.

The remains will be taken to Walla Walla tomorrow where interment will follow in the cemetery where her husband was buried 23 years ago, after meeting a tragic death near Baker City. Mrs. Kaimback is survived by one son, Jess, well and favorably known here, and besides other sisters, and brothers, by her sister Mrs. J. Clancy of this city. The others are Mrs. Long of British Columbia, and Messrs Oscar Sullivan of Portland and Nick Sullivan of Walla Walla, who will all be at the funeral. Mrs. Kaimback was about 48 years old having lived here a quarter of a century, during which time she made many warm friends and acquaintances.

CONCERT A WONDER.

Stunned—if music and its effects can properly be termed thus—by the greatness of it, more than a thousand attentive listeners last evening at L. D. S. tabernacle sat spell bound during the wonderful renditions of the organization that is truly what has been said of it. As for its solos they were on a par with the best musical things ever heard in this city, but not, perhaps any better. This description falls short however, in speaking collectively. The Dedication ode opened the avalanche of music that lasted until near the midnight hour, turning suddenly into a shower of impromptu and unprogrammed hand-waving and cheers, another reflection of the goodwill and appreciation on all sides. Picture in your mind's eye an intricate but perfect and well oiled machine, increasing its speed, dimming again, starting with terrible velocity, all at the beck and call of a master hand at the levers, and you have a rough prospectus of the masterly power and control which Conductor Stephens has over the 250 voices. Clumps could be written of well earned praise of each solo, of each rendition, be it home composition or epics of the master works, but space does not permit. It would be sacrilegious at any rate. Without physical contortion, merely beckoning with a finger or a barely visible up lift of the baton, Mr. Stephens brought forth a mixture of staccato pianissimo, pianoforte and ritard that was truly marvelous. Many a man and woman was cheered to the soul with the concert.

The program was varied at times much to the delight of all, for the audience received even more than promised.

Prof. McClellan and Mr. Best the tenor, entertained a few special guests at the conclusion of the program with some equally classical and entertaining numbers.

Oil will also be bored for near Dallas.
