H. J. RITTER WILL STAY

REPORT THAT HE HAD SOLD OUT FAILS TO MATERIALIZE.

Announces That he Will Stay in La Grande and do Business.

The deal that was thought to be closed whereby H. J. Ritter had disposed of his photograph gallery here, has failed to materialize, and Mr. Ritter will continue the business in the same place. Mr. Ritter states that since the deal has fell through, that he is more than glad to remain, and his many friends will also be delighted that he is to continue the good work that he has been putting out.

It is thought the man who was to purchase the studio was taken with a case of the "cold feet" and was afraid that he could not keep up the high standard of work that was being turned out by Mr. Ritter. Be it as it may everybody will enjoy reading the news that Mr. Ritter is to stay among us, although he is considerably pent up over the fact that he is knocked out of a vacation for this year.

WANTS FRANKS IN STATUS QUO.

In Other Words All Matters Pertaining to Him Are to be Put on Ice.

The case of H. Franks, who escaped from custody at North Powder while being brought from La Grande to Baker, had a development today when Prosecuting Attorney Levens filed a motion asking the court to withhold all matters pertaining to Franks in status quo. This means, according to a county official, that all Franks court matters shall be put on ice until the wily man is located and brought back to Baker county, or until the fact is established that he is dead, proof of which would be conclusive if his skeleton were produced in court. In the instrument filed today the affidavits of physicians officers and order of the court are embodied, with a request from Levens as above mentioned. The court has set Saturday morning at 9 o'clock a. m. for hearing.—Baker City Herald.
