STORIES NOT TRUE

The Mormon Tabernacle choir passed through La Grande last night on its way to Salt Lake from the Seattle fair. They will give a concert at Nampa. In an interview with members of the choir they stated that the stories in the Seattle papers that the police dispersed "The Mormon Mob" from in front of the concert building when they started a riot on the night of the concert were false, and that as soon as Mr. Stephens told the members of the choir what to do they all went quietly to the Utah building where they remained until their conductor arrived. It is said that as soon as the people became aware of what happened one could hear the expression on all sides: "Well that is the limit" and "It is an outrage" which showed the sentiment of the people in general.

LAYING BRICK ON NEW DEPOT.
Work on Structure is Progressing Rapidly.

Bricklaying begun on the new O. R. & N. depot this morning and all workmen seem to be busy and anxious to get the job completed. Pendleton's station is progressing a little in advance of the one here, for the brick walls have been completed there. Those in charge of the Baker City building state it will not be long before it is completed.—Baker City Herald.

Food For Thought.

Every reason which makes it a man's duty to provide for his family while he is living, acts with greater force to secure for them a comfortable subsistence after he shall have been removed from them.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Now I know how to practice Christ's command to take no thought for the morrow. I pay the policy money once a year and take no further thought about it.—Chas. H. Surgeon.

I have known men who have an income of $3000, $4000, or $5000 a year who did not leave one farthing for the surviving household. Now such a man's death is a refection, an outrage, a swindle. He did not die, he absconded.—T. De Witt Talmage.

There are many business men who know that they need life insurance, but who do not like to be solicited. Simply call up Messrs Carlock & Gilham on either phone and he will be pleased to tell you all about the great plan of modern life insurance which creates an estate for the family and at the same time a bank account for the insured.
