SMITH DAY AT THE A Y P

SEATTLE, Sept. 1.—(Special)—Smith Family Day on Thursday will be a unique feature of the week's entertainment at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. Smiths from all parts of the state will gather for the day. Prizes will be offered for the oldest Smith, the youngest Smith, and so on through the whole list of unusual members of the Smith family.

Beginning with Thursday and continuing until September 9, the most elaborate fireworks spectacle yet attempted at the exposition will be presented. The scene represents the destruction of the City of Mexico. The effects will all be worked out in fireworks, showing the burning and ruin of the Mexican capital.

Another feature of the Thursday entertainment at the fair will be Okanogan Day. A large number of people from that county are already at the fair and they will be joined by an excursion party which is expected to arrive Wednesday. The Okanogan county booth will be fitted up for the reception of the visitors and fruit will be given away free to all comers.

The Wenatchee celebration on Friday will be the chief attraction of the day. Two car loads of Wenatchee fruit, including a bountiful supply of big red apples, will be distributed from the Chelan county booth in the Agriculture building. The Wenatchee Chamber of Commerce estimates that the attendance on that day from the county will reach two thousand.

Seaside had a dahlia fair. It claims to have "the finest dahlies in the entire world."

MOORE HOME PURCHASED

A transfer was made today of the house and one lot which has been the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore for the past five years. The purchaser is Henry T. Hill, who with his wife and little daughter will make La Grande their future home. Mr. Hill recently sold his dam site farm to the Meadowbrook Irrigation company and while he will continue to have interests in several farming communities he will live here. Dr. Moore still owns the two hillside lots east of his recent home and may build again, although he and his wife plan to live at Hotel Foley the coming year.

In addition to this Mr. and Mrs. Hill purchased the furnishings complete with the exceptions of such personal belongings as are not included in such transactions.

THE BEST PLACE

Without a doubt the best place to get all kinds of vegetables, strawberries, cherries, oranges, bananas and lemons, is at the Geddes Grocery, they have the best and the freshest; and should you want nice crisp sweet or sour pickles, just call them up; and don't forget that 25c coffee, it takes the place of your 40c coffee. Just a shipment of Swifts ham and bacon.
