HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER HAS RESIGNED AT ELEVENTH HOUR

W. F. Maitrejean of Summersett, Wisconsin, who had applied for and been given the principalship of the Commercial department of the La Grande high school, has wired to the school board asking for his release, and his application has been granted. The board immediately acted on another application, this one from South Dakota, and Prof. Grisswald is the applicant. Telegraphic acceptances are expected momentarily and the board will know tomorrow night, perhaps before, whether or not the commercial department will be equipped with an instructor. If Mr. Grisswald does not accept the offered job, still other applicants will be considered. The telegram of refusal to come, after Mr. Maitrejean had so promised, came as a surprise to the school board and Principal Stout. On paper Mr. Grisswald looks as good a man from every standpoint of qualifications.

Standing Room Gone.

Standing room was all taken at the Pastime theatre last night, to welcome Miss Louise Kelley and the Dramatic Stock in the comedy "Charley's Aunt." The performance was well up to the high standard of the Pastime productions, and every one seemed highly pleased with the play and players. Miss Kelley's many friends were out in full force and we are safe in saying that she won many new ones by her beautiful appearance and clever work. Miss Natino, Miss Tucker and Miss Chumley, also did well, and costumed their parts handsomely. Mr. Routh, Mr. Harrison and Mr. Curtiss had the leading parts as the three college chums and Mr. Leonard, Mr. Gray and Mr. Baker were all good in their respective roles. "Charley's Aunt" is one of the neatest and brightest comedies ever presented here, and will, upon its merits draw packed houses for tonight and tomorrow night.

War on Billboards.

War has been declared on the billboard nuisance in this city, the first gun of the campaign having been fired in council meeting last evening. This consisted of the introduction of an ordinance which if it becomes a law, will eliminate a few of the unsightly billboards and cause all of them to be moved back from the sidewalks a short distance. The ordinance was read the first time and then referred to the ordinance committee which will probably report on it at the next regular meeting.—Pendleton E. O.

Food For Thought.

Every reason which makes it a man's duty to provide for his family while he is living, acts with greater force to secure for them a comfortable subsistence after he shall have been removed from them.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Now I know how to practice Christ's command to take no thought for the morrow. I pay the policy money once a year and take no further thought about it.—Chas. H. Surgeon.

I have known men who have an income of $3000, $4000, or $5000 a year who did not leave one farthing for the surviving household. Now such a man's death is a reftaction, an outrage, a swindle. He did not die, he absconded.—T. De Witt Talmage.

PENDLETON IS ANXIOUS

PENDLETON, Sept. 2.—The East Oregonian said tonight:

Pendleton has been invited to participate in a musical contest and it is up to the musicians of the city to maintain the reputation of the city.

The invitation came by phone last evening to President Will Moore of the Commercial association, from the secretary of the Union and Willowa county fair association. It seems that the La Grande fair is to be held in that city, the week following the Pendleton fair and that one of the chief attractions of the fair is to be a contest between choruses representing the cities of Eastern Oregon. La Grande will have a chorus, Baker City has already signified her intention of having a chorus and the fair management is very desirous that Pendleton be represented.

The matter will be turned over by Mr. Moore to some of the local musicians. According to the opinions expressed by those who have been approached on the subject, Pendleton will not only be represented, but will be there with a chorus which will be a credit to the city.
