BIG CROWDS TO SCHOOLS

During the next two weeks there will be a larger and more general exodus from this city to higher schools of learnings, than has yet been experienced in the past. With the departure yesterday of Miss Jane Harris for Ellensburg, the departure commenced and will be kept up at regular intervals from now on. The University of Oregon will draw the largest delegation perhaps. Among those who will register there the coming fall are Ben Grout, who has been out one year, and will return this fall, Will Neill, a freshman, James Neill, senior, Miss Pearl Huff, senior, Miss Naomi Williamson, junior, Joe Williamson, freshman, Ivy Williams, Sarah Riddle and perhaps Harry Stein.

O. A. C. will attract Jay Reynolds for his senior year, Clyde Day, Miss Ethel McKennon and perhaps Charlie Reynolds. Others are also planning on going to the agricultural school and others than those named are thinking serious of attending the U. of O.

FORM INFORMAL HOP CLUB

FIRST OF SERIES WILL BE GIVEN THIS MONTH.

Eight Young Ladies Band Themselves Under Name of Le Jaunesse.

Informal invitation dances are to be inaugurated in the near future by a young ladies dancing club, formed last night, and the first of the series will be held this month at the Elks' hall. Invitations will be out in the near future, but one invitation is to serve for the whole series. This is a new venture in itself and is only one of the features that are to mark the dancing parties. It is planned to have at least one of these parties each month until the new year. "Le Jaunesse" is the name of the club composed of eight young ladies, namely Misses Ethel Gulling, Florence McCall, Gertrude Ralston, Irene Murphy, Lulu Gulling, Frances Massee, Ruth Bush and Mrs. A. W. Nelson.

Committees were appointed last evening and the following officers elected: Pres., Mrs. A. W. Nelson; vice president, Miss Ruth Bush; sec., Miss Lulu Gulling, and treasurer Miss Frances Massee.

REPLETE WITH THRILLS.

Show Coming to The Steward September 15 is Rural Natured.

"Uncle Josh Perkins," the big rural play, which is coming to the Steward Opera house on Wednesday, September 15, is replete with smiles and thrills and is declared one of the most life-like dramatic offerings seen here in a long time, true to all the scenes it attempts to depict and with vivid types of characters life-like and natural in presentation. "Uncle Josh" is voted a big success wherever seen. The four acts are equally divided between New York City and Vermont, the play centering about the efforts of a sharp New York attorney to marry Edith Marston, an heiress, for her money. How his plot is foiled by "Uncle Josh" and the happy termination make a seaable play, which will doubtless attract a large audience too. Splendid specialties will be presented during the various acts of the drama.

Notice.

Effective September 3rd and until further notice local tickets will not be honored on Train No. 8, between Portland and Huntington. This train will, however, make regular scheduled stops to pick up passengers destined to points east of Huntington.

A Real Pleasure Night.

Those who had the pleasure of seeing "The Senator's Daughter" at the Pastime theatre, should attend either tonight or tomorrow night. It is one of the best, from a dramatic point, of the many strong ones staged by the Dramatic Stock. It is well written, well staged, well costumed and extremely well acted, so what more could one ask for. Miss Behta Natino does the best work of her engagement as "Lucia Stetson" and Miss Louise Kelley creates plenty of laughter as "Mrs. Higgins." Miss Tucker is good as "June Clay" and the male members of the cast furnish splendid support.
