THE BEST PLACE

Without a doubt the best place to get all kinds of vegetables, strawberries, cherries, oranges, bananas and lemons, is at the Geddes Grocery, they have the best and the freshest; and should you want nice crisp sweet or sour pickles, just call them up; and don't forget that 25c coffee, it takes the place of your 40c coffee. Just a shipment of Swifts ham and bacon.

Last Time Tonight.

"The Senator's Daughter" will close a remarkably successful engagement at the aptime theatre tonight. Those who have had the pleasure of seeing this play will do well to come out, as the performance is well worth double the price charged at the door. The strong dramatic scenes of which the play abounds, are well handled by the capable cast. The third act climax is one of the strongest dramatic situations known to stagecraft. Tomorrow night "Hearts of The Blue Ridge."

Fogg Family Reunion.

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—A dense Fogg settled today over the Quincy House, where the Fogg family assembled in annual national reunion. The Fogs devoted the day to business connected with their family association, and tomorrow will be occupied in excursions and sight-seeing.

SOCIETY.

September 22 is the date set for the first informal dancing party to be given by the Le Jaunesse Dancing club. Invitations will be out next week.

Miss Minnie Kinnear of Weston, was united in holy bonds of marriage to James B. Devin, also of the same place today. The wedding occurred at the home of Rev. Ford Ellis, at 12 o'clock p. m. These young people will make their home at Weston, where the groom is employed as a clerk.

One of those old fashioned family reunion picnics was held on Little Bow's place, along Big Elk, south of town Thursday afternoon, when Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Knowles and daughters, Misses Grace, Ethel and Marguerite; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Travis, Mrs. F. L. Chew and child, of Denver, Col.; Mrs. Emma Thatcher of Chicago; Judge John Knowles, wife and two children of La Grande, Oregon, and Father Robert Knowles, repaired to the picnic grounds and spent the day. —Hobart, (Oklahoma) Republican.

Scores of people yesterday and last evening, were guests with Doctor and Mrs. A. L. Richardson at their home to meet Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilder and daughter. From 2:30 o'clock until a late hour in the night, there was an intermittent stream of guests anxious to meet the Californians, who were the guests of honor. The Richardson home was made extremely pretty with beautiful home grown roses, nasturtiums and asters, grouped in bouquets and clusters, so as to give an appearance of Junetide, rather than Fall. Mrs. Richardson sang several solos during the progress of the reception that were appreciatively received. Dainty refreshments were served.
