CASE UNDER ADVISEMENT

In the case of Water Superintendent H. C. Gilman, charged with assault and battery on the person of Fireman Bowman, which was heard before Justice of the Peace Angus Stewart, this morning, the case was taken under advisement until Saturday morning.

It is charged that Mr. Gilman knocked Bowman down in the store of Andrews & Berry, after Bowman had called Mrs. Gilman a liar.

The trouble came up over the efforts of Mr. Gilman to collect a board bill from Bowman. Bowman had quit the services of the railroad, and his belongings were attached by Gilman and others.

PRAISE FOR LOCAL MINES

J. A. Thronson of Imbler, and his brother E. Thronson of Prineville, have returned from a ten-days tour of inspection of the Eureka and Boston mines up the Grande Ronde river. Mr. E. Thronson has followed mining for many years and states emphatically that the Eureka and Boston properties can both be made dividend producers. It is more than probable that steps will soon be taken to resume work on the Eureka at least.
