DEAF MUTE IS INJURED

Suffering intense pain from injuries received from a switch engine, hurling him quite a distance while he was walking along the track, a man by the name of Nash, a deaf and dumb mute, was taken to the Blue Mountain house yesterday afternoon about five o'clock. As far as could be learned from him he was walking along the track and an engine came up behind him and not being able to hear it, he was hurled some distance and received severe bruises and cuts on the head and body. Dr. Upton was called and treated the injuries and today, although not out of pain, is somewhat better and on the road to recovery.

A Big Week.

One of the largest Monday night houses ever in attendance at the Pastime, was out last night to see the second performance of the powerful drama, "From Sire to Son." As on its first presentation the play gave the best of satisfaction. Mr. Harrison and Miss Natino were both deservedly applauded in the leading roles, and the supporting cast was all that could be expected or desired. Mr. Routh does some great work as "Jonas." The dramatic situation in the old tower during the last act is one of the strong features of the play. With "Down On The Farm" following for the last half of the week promises to be one of the largest the house has ever had.

ANIMAL TURNS PUGLIST.

Vicious Pinto Comes Near Seriously Injuring Officer Black.

Poundmaster Joe Black escaped serious injury this morning in a lucky fashion when a spirited and ugly pinto which he attempted to capture after it had broke loose from its moorings on Washington avenue. The beast tantalized the whole police department and a few others, but was finally roped by Officer Black. When he had hove in the slack and got his hand on the beast's bridle, that animal commenced a system of sparring and counter attack which luckily did but little damage to Mr. Black. The pinto reared up like the coon Johnson and struck with his fore parts so lively and with such force that had he aimed his blows more true Mr. Black would have taken the count for sure. After due care and patience Mr. Horse was snubbed to a tree and awaited his owner who got away without trouble. The animal was extremely vicious.

Trap Rats at Seattle.

SEATTLE, Sept. 14.—Giant rat traps, extending two miles along the water front to catch rats infesting the wharfs, will be installed by the city department to heal the sanitation according to plans today. This plan is more economical than than the small traps. The traps will have pitfalls at intervals, so the rats will drop into the trap.

REMARKABLE ENDURANCE.

Man of Ninety-Seven Years Takes Long Trip in Automobile.

Ninety-seven years of age, yet able to ride from Pendleton to Wallowa and back to La Grande en route to Pendleton again, is the remarkable record of Mr. Blakeley of Pendleton, who with his escorts left this morning for Pendleton after spending the night here. The trip was made with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson, formerly of this city, but now of Pendleton, who drove to Wallowa from Pendleton in a 1910 Franklin. Mr. Blakeley, a grandfather of Mrs. Thompson made the trip with them. He is 97 and the only effect the trip has had on him thus far was to make him fret last night because the trip yesterday did not continue to Menacham without stopping. He was persuaded to rest in this city however. The party left this morning at 7 o'clock on the last lap of their journey.
