

Benjamin Clothes
Sifted Benjamin at La Grande

We found out early in our business experience that there's no profit in selling a man his first suit if it turns out to be his last. Talk won't bring you back if you don't think you are getting value and good treatment. That's the chief reason why we sell and give our strongest guarantee. We could easily buy clothing on which we could make a much larger profit, but we wouldn't be selling you the best clothes made and they couldn't give you the same sense of being well dressed as long as you want to wear them. Our new fall styles are here and well worthy of the attention of every man who values high class tailoring and peerless style.

Alfred Benjamin Sincerity Clothing

"Down on The Farm."

There will be no doubt regarding the size of the crowds who will attend the Pastime theatre for the rest of the week. The announcement that the popular stock company would be seen in the well known play "Down on the Farm," has awakened expressions of interest from all the theatre patrons. Many have seen this play, but they will see it again. As when one reads a good book, they embrace the opportunity to read it again, and as a rule, find new enjoyments from the second reading.

For this production Mr. Curtiss has a strong cast, and an exceedingly clever performance may be looked for. Miss Bertha Natino will be seen as "Ruth" and Russell Harrison will play "Allen". Miss Kelley is cast for the part of "Louise Tompkins," and Norman Gray will be "Mr. Shaw," Mr. Leonard will do "Bradley" and Miss Chumley will be interesting as "Mabel." Mr. Routh will again be seen as the absent minded "Prof. Dawson" and Mr. Curtiss will play his old part of "Sl."

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to return our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors, for the many acts of kindness and sympathy extended to us in the loss of our dear husband and father. Mrs. Brown and family.

Hamilton Trial Postponed.

OLYMPIA, Sept. 16.—Upon the presentation of the attorney representing Otis Hamilton, former adjutant of the Washington militia, accused of embezzling state funds to the amount of $37,000, that they needed more time to examine the records. Judge Mitchell today granted the continuance until the November term. Hamilton is in jail, being unable to furnish bail.
