PREVENTION OF CONSUMPTION.

Appropriations of over $4,000,000 for the suppression of consumption have been made by twenty-eight state legislatures in session during the past year, according to a statement issued today by the National association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis.

Since January 1, 1909, forty-three state and territorial legislatures have been in session. Of this number, 28 have passed laws pertaining to tuberculosis; eight others have considered such legislation, and in only seven states no measures about consumption were presented. In all, 101 laws relating to the prevention or treatment of human tuberculosis were considered and out of this number 64 were passed.

Of the sixty-four laws passed; fourteen were in reference to building new state institutions. New state sanatoria for tuberculosis will be built in Pennsylvania, Connecticut, where three will be erected, Arkansas, Oregon, South Dakota, North Dakota and Florida. In New York, North Carolina, Indiana, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine, appropriations have been made for enlarging sanatoria, already being built or in operation. There are now 27 states where such institutions have been established. Every state east of the Mississippi, except Illinois, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, South Carolina and Mississippi, have provided hospitals for tuberculosis patients.

On state fair is becoming a credit to the state. Wednesday 25,000 people passed through the gates. For a while our state fair was not such to cause any great pride upon the part of our citizens, but new life has been injected into the management for several years, as a result the state fair draws largely from all over and those who return are more than pleased.

With 2,000 men at work along the Dechutes river, equally divided between the Harriman and Hill interests, there is no doubt whatever but the great interior of our state which has been bottled up will receive relief as soon as it is possible for money and men to do it.

Since Mr. Peary has served notice on the world that he is to make an attempt to find the South Pole, it would be unkind for Dr. Cook to beat him to it.

Weston recently voted to float a bond issue of $25,000, but through errors in the election, the bond buyers require it to be re-submitted to the people.

"The bulwarks of the government are the men you elect to congress." These are the words spoken by President Taft, Wednesday.

Care of The Vocal Cords.

Our vocal cords are the most sensitive muscles in the body and are governed by the most sensitive nerve mechanism imaginable. Not only does this apparatus record the changes in our health, being influenced as a whole by every rise and fall of the body's condition, but it records instantly the finest shades of emotional feeling and intensity of thought. This argues strength generally, for the greater nerve supply the great reserve strength.

But also argues weakness, for the broader the nervous connection, the greater exposure to evil influences through reflex disturbances. What wonder, then, that the vocal cords should so frequently be subject to minor difficulties of an annoying nature, of which one is half ashamed to complain, while they are really very distressing to the individual but which occasionally may get so very much worse as to be almost unendurable?

Affections of the vocal cords thus require an expert diagnostician—a doctor trained to be perfectly familiar with the body from repeated and careful examination—such a person as the Osteopathic Physician, both in training and practice, is. Nothing bears higher testimony to the value of osteopathy than its wonderful and prompt successes in affections of this organ.—Osteopathic Health.
