URGES TWIN FALLS TRIP

J. W. BUSH BELIEVES TRIP WOULD BE BIG HELP.

Coming Irrigation Project Would Receive Stimulus by Junction.

J. W. Bush, writing from Twin Falls where he went recently with a team to commence work on his ranch there, urges that the Commercial club of this city promulgate the Twin Falls excursion discussed some time ago. He affirms the trip would do the people of La Grande and Union county much good for it would afford them an opportunity to see how ranching is conducted along lines irrigational. The whole world has marvelled at the speed with which Twin Falls has grown up, and Mr. Bush argues, the boosters of La Grande should come there bringing with them a big crowd of farmers, who will soon have irrigation.

Mr. Bush apparently is well satisfied with the prospects here and is busily engaged in putting his ranch into shape.
