

Benjamin Clothes
Alfred Benjamin & Co. LA GRANDE, ORE.

We found out early in our business experience that there's no profit in selling a man his first suit if it turns out to be his last. Talk won't bring you back if you don't think you are getting value and good treatment. That's the chief reason why we sell and give our strongest guarantee. We could easily buy clothing on which we could make a much larger profit, but we wouldn't be selling you the best clothes made and they couldn't give you the same sense of being well dressed as long as you want to wear them. Our new fall styles are here and well worthy of the attention of every man who values high class tailoring and peerless style.

EXPECT STRONG FINISH.

Largest Crowds Yet at Fair Expected During Coming Few Weeks.

SEATTLE, Sept. 17.—(Special)—The biggest travel of the year to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition is yet to come, and from now on until the end of the fair we shall have every car and engine on our line in use day and night.

This is the way A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific judges the transportation situation from eastern points to the exposition.

"I look for Taft Day to break all records in attendance, for our agents in Washington, Oregon and Idaho, predict a tremendous rush to Seattle when the president is here on September 30.

"Valley of Yakima Day, September 22, will call for many special trains from that section. Ellensburg Day, September 13, brought a large delegation.

"We already have an order to accommodate 1,000 persons from Walla Walla for their day at the exposition, September 23. Six hundred tickets for Seattle were sold to Adams county citizens, who came to the fair, Wednesday.

Posse Chase Bank Robbers.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Sept. 17.—A posse of men is today pursuing five bandits who held up the second section of a passenger train on the Denver Rio Grande railroad last night, and dynamited the express near Malta. Officials maintain no valuables were taken. The bandits climbed over the tender and stopped the train at pistol point.

Teddy Kills Big Bull.

(By Staff Correspondent of United Press.)

NAIROBI, Sept. 17.—Natives arriving from Roosevelt's camp at Kenai province, report he killed a huge bull elephant recently, the best seen in this section. Kermit is hunting northward and killed five lions, and five buffalo. Roosevelt is not killing as many animals because he doesn't need the specimens.

Play Highly Satisfactory.

"Down on The Farm" was a strong drawing card at the Pastime theatre last night, and the large audience enjoyed the performance. The well known drama ran smoothly, and the cast was good.

Miss Natino looked and acted the part of "Ruth" to the satisfaction of all, and Russell Harrison was an ideal "Allen." Mr. Routh was fine in the part of "Prof. Dawson," and Miss Kelley was one of the hits of the show in the role of "Louise Tompkins." Norman Gray played "Mr. Shaw" with strength and feeling, and Miss Chumley made a beautiful "Mabel." Mr. Leonard got all there was out of the part of "Bradley," and Mr. Curtiss as "Si," pleased every one. Miss Tucker introduced a specialty that was well received. This popular play will be given tonight and tomorrow night.

TO OUST HENEY.

Charges Preferred in Frisco That Recent Election Was Not Legal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—Arguments were made today in the mandamus suits brought by the supporters of C. M. Fickert's candidacy for the district attorneyship to oust Heney from the Democratic nomination for that office. Fickert men claim that Fickert votes were not counted, and that if they had been counted, he would have received the Democratic as well as the Republican and Union Labor endorsements. Heney's attorneys asked the dismissal of the case on the grounds of insufficient evidence. Arguments were continued this afternoon.

"Affinity" Man at Home.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—"Affinity" Ferdinand P. Earle, the artist, who sent his wife back to her parents in France, so that she would be out of the way of Julia Kuttner, his first affinity, also, who after dropping affinity number one recently, was reported to be traveling in Europe with Gertrude Dunn, a short story writer, has returned to New York, and shut himself up in his castle at Monroe, N. Y. Miss Dunn likewise returned, and remains secluded here in her studio, trying to forget her "Soulmate" Earle. Earle is shunned by his Monroe neighbors.
