COVE SCHOOLS ARE BIGGER

The Cove schools will open on Monday with a larger attendance than ever before and with better prospects in every line, states the Union Scout.

For the first time in the history of the school, a full high school course will be given. Roy Conklin is again at the head of the schools and will be ably seconded by Floyd Johnson, a graduate of Michigan, who has quite a reputation in athletics, and who will coach the athletic teams. With Mr. Johnson as coach and with other favorable conditions, Cove expects to win the pennant in football this year. The department of forensics will be given a good deal of attention this year and Cove will apply for entrance in the state debating league.

The following teachers will have charge of the various departments: Roy Conklin, principal; Floyd Johnson, assistant; Miss Bellfield, 7th and 8th grades; Lottie Fried, 5th and 6th grades; Stella Sievers, 3rd and 4th grades; Eva Wilson, 2nd grade; Effie Shore, primary.
