FINE STOCK FROM FRANCE

On his return from Europe, where he has been for the past four months buying blooded horses M. C. Metz, one of the best known horsemen in Eastern Oregon, arrived in La Grande yesterday and spent the day in the city continuing his journey to his home in Pendleton early this forenoon. Mr. Metz will have a car of fine stock through this city in about 30 days. All his purchases are at present time on the Metz farm in Illinois. S. Metz will leave for another purchasing tour of England and France in a few days.

In regard to the demand for good horses, Mr. Metz said that there were 30 American buyers in Paris at the time he was there. He attended the great annual horse show in the French metropolis and succeeded in purchasing the winner of the second prize out of a class of 80 2-year-old stallions.

The coming American work horse seems to be the Percheron and the Shire, according to Mr. Metz. There is a great deal more of these breeds shipped from their English and French homes than of the other stock. The next in popularity would no doubt be the Belgian.

While he is of the opinion that America can not, for a long time, at least, gain sufficient prestige to rival Europe as a breeding place for horses, Mr. Metz says there are some very fine farms in Iowa and Illinois at the present time. These states, he says, are leading the United States in breeding fine stock. Out of the 30 American buyers in Paris at time he was there 14 were from Illinois. Oregon he says is easily leading the west in fine horses.

Notice to Patrons.
Subscribers not receiving their papers regularly or if it is not delivered as it should be, will confer a great favor by notifying the office. Unless you do so we have no knowledge but what the delivery service is satisfactory. The time of the year is now here when proper delivery is essential. No subscriber wants to dry out their paper, neither do we want them to. If the paper is delivered properly it is not necessary.

Everybody do a little conscientious boosting for the next two weeks and it will help our fair. Take your friends from the Valley down on Washington avenue and let them see what is going on and what preparation is being made there. This is by far the biggest attempt to hold a first class fair that has been made in many years. We can make it the biggest success if every one helps.

NEW WHISKY INDICTMENTS

S. F. Wilson, one of Umatilla county's prominent attorneys, is in the city on a business visit. Attorney Wilson reports renewed interest and excitement over local option matters as the grand jury which reported last week indicted two of the most prominent men in Pendleton for bootlegging.

The men indicted were W. A. Brown of the Hotel Pendleton and George Darveau of the Hotel St. George. They were served with the warrants of arrest Saturday and appeared in court where they waived examination and Wednesday was set for their time to plead. There will probably be a lively scrap put up as the men accused have employed strong legal defenders.

Attorney Wilson is conferring with R. A. West regarding the artesian well digging at Athena. He reports the wells already sunk as highly successful and thinks a number of other wells will be bored. Artesian water may be seen to be used extensively in irrigation.
