A BIG DAY FOR GRANGE

At the regular meeting of the Blue Mountain Grange, Saturday afternoon plans for educational day which is to be held the third Saturday of October were discussed. The program is in the hands of Mr. Roy Gekeler, who is the grand lecturer. He is preparing a splendid program for the day, but is not yet prepared to publish it. All the principals of the schools of the county are expected to be present at the meeting as well as a large number of the teachers. The entire day will be devoted to educational discussions. A literary program was given Saturday.

Monday. Readings were rendered by Mesdames Will Gekeler, J. A. Fraker, C. E. Golden and Miss Eva Huffman. The Grange Echo, the paper issued by the younger members of the Grange, was read by Miss Kate Gekeler. Roll call was answered by quotations, and by current events. There were several songs sung by the entire Grange.

It was decided to give up the Grange dinner on Thursday of fair week because the Presbyterian Ladies Aid had selected the same day through a misunderstanding. Many have expressed the hope that the Grange may yet give a dinner during the week.

NEW TEACHER AT WORK

The eighth grade of the city public schools today has its regular teacher, Mrs. M. W. Bullard, who was elected to take the place of Miss Syra Kuhn. Mr. and Mrs. Bullard arrived in La Grande Saturday, and are making their home with Dr. and Mrs. Upton for the present. Mr. Bullard is a brother of Mrs. Upton. He has taken a position as bookkeeper at the sugar factory. Mrs. Bullard has been out of the school room for some years, but decided to take up the work again as she and her husband were coming west. She was decidedly successful in the teaching profession when she was engaged in the work. For several years Mr. and Mrs. Bullard have lived in Chicago where Mr. Bullard was engaged in the shoe business.

A WOLF IN SHEEPSKIN

A new tale of a minister in trouble comes from Walla Walla where the Rev. W. H. Mason has been in jail for the past week on the charge of bigamy and also of irregularities in money matters. Yesterday a woman arrived from Chicago to find Mason to whom she had been engaged. Her story is one of sadness and deception, says the Union.

The Rev. Mr. Mason is well known to the Baptist ministers of Union and Walla counties as he came out about the time of the last meeting in Walla. He preached a sermon and also applied for work in the Grande Ronde association. The Rev. Mr. Gibson of this city was a little suspicious of the man and wrote to his North Carolina home. The answer came that the man had a wife and debts galore. From here he went to Freewater and obtained work and later landed behind the bars in Walla Walla for swindling.
