FOOTBALL STIMULUS

The arrival of 18 new football suits will prove a decided stimulus to football enthusiasm at the high school today. The new shipment of moleskin arrived at Van Buren's last evening, and will be taken to the school by Manager Ingley today.

The new outfits make it possible for over 30 players to be on the field in full uniform. In addition to the suits already on hand the new consignment will add 18 pairs of pants with jerseys, and a number of nose guards and pairs of shoes. The suits are padded in regular style and are the same as those already in possession of the players. The goods came from the Spaulding company.

The football season will be ushered in by a game with Union at Union, October 2. The game scheduled with the Enterprise team for next Saturday has been called off for the present time with a hope of arranging a date on Wallowa Day.

The date for the game with the Enterprise team is causing considerable anxiety in football and fair circles. The problem of avoiding a conflict may be solved if the school authorities can be prevailed upon to allow the students an hour from studies just before noon, so the game can be played immediately after the arrival of the special train. The special will arrive about 10:30 and the game could be called at 11. The manager and coach of the football team do not desire to interfere with the fair and the fair committee is anxious to co-operate with the football interests as the game will bring many additional people from Wallowa county.
