

NEW FALL GOODS

Commands Attention at the

PEOPLE'S STORE

IS NOW SHOWING CHOICE NOVELTIES FROM THE BEST MARKETS
AND A RELIABLE REPRESENTATION OF ALL OF FALL'S CREA-TIONS NOW INVITES YOUR CRITICISM AND PATRONAGE.

NEW DRESS GOODS.

This section is complete with the largest and best selected lines of dress goods ever placed on the market at the prices.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY

of samples from our 50c line. All other grades just as complete.

SILK WAISTS

in smart new tailored effects. One special lot at your choice. . . . $2.75

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Where and how to get these materials so good—the workmanship so precise and effective—is a secret.

If you don't know what to buy for your new fall costumes order for any other home supply, either in luxury or necessity, don't worry, this store is full of suggestions. Come and look. Just look and you will be sure to see what you want.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE

Opera House Block

La Grande, Oregon

Conductor D. A. Jense left today for Walla Walla to make a week's visit.

Mrs. Blanchard Hansen left yesterday for Telocaset to visit relatives for a few days.

John Martin of Union, is in the city today looking for a location on which to build a hotel in this city.

Mrs. P. Slack of Elgin, returned home yesterday after attending the Stoop divorce trial at the court house Saturday.

A. B. Conover, the popular young attorney of Enterprise, and the swift baseball pitcher of that city, came down yesterday to spend a few days in this city.

J. J. Broughton is one of the new comers in La Grande and has taken up permanently his residence on north side. He is employed at Palmer mills.

An effort is being made to organize a boy and girl choir for St. Peter's church for the evening service. The choir is rehearsing under the direction of Mrs. G. R. Carlock.

Carl Towner, an Elgin merchant, left for his home yesterday after spending a day or two in the city. Towner was a pitcher of the late Elgin team.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wade, who have been visiting friends in Walla Walla, have returned to their home in Island City.

Edward Davis of Spokane, came down yesterday from a business visit to Flora, and reported harvest work in that section of Wallowa county almost over.

Clarence Redhead and Walter and William Spencer returned yesterday from a fishing and hunting trip along the headwaters of the Minam. A large sack of venison bore testimony to their luck.

Charles Wilson of King Hill, Idaho, who spent a short time with Mr. Speckhart of the valley, while returning from the Seattle fair, left last night for his home. Mr. Davis reported the most flourishing conditions in the Idaho irrigation project.

C. E. Mills, district manager from the Brotherhood of America, is planning to leave this city, where he has made his headquarters for more than a half year. He will go back east or to California, he is undecided which.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martzoff of Athens county, Ohio, who have been touring the coast, stopped over for a few days to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Koehensparger of this city. Yesterday they were taken several hours, through beautiful Grande Ronde, and this morning they left for their home singing words of praise for Union county.

Attorney Turner Oliver took his departure this morning for Spokane, where he will represent the La Grande Commercial club at the famous and nationally interesting rate hearing to open there tomorrow. Expert Witness Gains has already gone to Spokane to be present. Each city in the group of "fighters" will be heard separately, and Mr. Oliver will handle La Grande's case.

Mrs. A. M. Evenson nee Bertha E. Derringer of Grants Pass, Oregon, and Mrs. J. M. Alexa nee Christina Larm of Hanover, Kansas, who have been visiting their mother Mrs. M. C. Larm, left yesterday for Portland to visit with friends for a few days. They will then visit the fair at Seattle before returning to their homes. Mrs. Evenson will return by way of Bandon, Oregon, to visit her son Arthur Derringer, who has charge of a Steam laundry there.

While coming into the city Saturday night with E. W. Oliver, for whom she had been engaged as assistant in household work during harvest time, Mrs. Parker sustained a broken arm in a runaway accident. Mrs. Huntley, another member of the party was also badly injured on the face and arm. There were five members in the party. Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Huntley were brought to the office of Dr. Bacon and their wounds dressed after which they were taken to their homes. The run-away was caused by the buggy tongue breaking.

SOCIETY.

Mrs. Frank Silts and Miss Mabel Eaton were married at the home of the bride's parents yesterday afternoon at 5:30, the Rev. Ford Ellis of the Central Christian church officiating. A large number of the friends and relatives of the young people witnessed the ceremony, and partook of the sumptuous wedding supper which followed. The groom is employed in the Perry lumber mills. The newly wedded pair will reside in this city.

It is not necessary to put with the inconvenience of poor sight these days—further more it is foolish to neglect having your eyes properly attended to.

If you suffer from headaches, nervousness, you will find it will pay you to have your eyes examined, as in nine cases out of ten the trouble lies there.

J. H. PEARE

We Carry a fine line of KABOO CORSETS $1.35 $1.50 and $2.50
Copyright 1909, Kaboo Corset Co.
Umbrellas $1.25-$6
ELEGANT LINE OF KIMONAS
Full Line Suits to Arrive Soon
VAN DUYN CO.

A GOOD RECORD

We have conducted a laundry business in La Grande for many years. There must be a reason. A trial order will explain the mystery.

A. B. C. Laundry
PHONE MAIN 7

Daily Observer, 65c per Month

WE HAVE SECURED SHERMAN CLAY'S full line of PLANOS and ORGANS

The musical instrument that sells strictly for one price to everyone

Scott Music Co.

THE THE BEST PLACE

Without a doubt the best place to get all kinds of vegetables, strawberries, cherries, oranges, bananas and lemons, is at the Geddes Grocery, they have the best and the freshest; and should you want nice crisp sweet or sour pickles, just call them up; and don't forget that 25c coffee, it takes the place of your 40c coffee. Just a shipment of Swifts ham and bacon.

GEDDES BROS.

PHONE MAIN 46

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mrs. O. J. Stubblefield of Enterprise, is in the city on a trading trip.

Miss Belle Gray left today for Elgin, to spend a few days with her parents.

Mrs. J. Dobbins of Enterprise came down today to have some dental work done in La Grande.

George Cleaver and Mr. Bridges left today for Lostine on a business visit. They will return tomorrow.

Peter Kuhn of Wallowa, arrived today to act as witness in the land contest case at the land office.

C. W. Brown came down from Wallowa today to be a witness in the land office contest case.

Architect J. L. Slater returned today from Joseph, and reports lively building talk there.

Miss Snider one of the teachers at the White school is confined to her home on account of illness.

Tracy Newman of Portland, is in the city today and will appear as a witness at the land office in a contest case.

Miss Anna Brooks of Imbler, returned this morning from Portland. Her father, S. L. Brooks went from Portland to Seattle to attend the fair.

Mrs. J. C. Conley of Enterprise, returned today from Hood River, where she was called by the illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Conley.

Architect Robert Miller returned Saturday from Joseph, and reports that the people of that city are expecting an extensive building campaign in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Birnie, recently married in this city, have returned from a horseback journey to the lakes of the Grande Ronde river, a trip both long and arduous. Mr. and Mrs. Birnie will be at home to their friends in South La Grande in the near future.

Miss Rose Chamberlain of Baker City, spent Sunday in this city with friends.

E. L. Willy, a prominent Portland stockbuyer, came out yesterday from Wallowa county.

W. E. Ruckman, formerly in the mercantile business in Alice, was a business visitor in the city today.

Attorney L. Denham of Elgin, returned home yesterday after putting in Saturday at the court house.

G. B. Bell of Enterprise, who has been in Seattle taking in the sights at the A-Y-P, returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Davis of Enterprise, were in the city yesterday returning from the Baker county fair and Baker City.

M. C. Metz, the eastern Oregon horse dealer, who returned from Europe, a few days ago, is again in La Grande after attending the state fair.

C. W. Howell of Pendleton, one of the young government officers connected with the Northwest Bureau of Animal Industry, returned yesterday from a visit in Wallowa county.

Fred Steinbach of Kansas, came down from Enterprise today, where he has been visiting relatives. He will leave tonight for Seattle to take in the fair.

Mrs. Ellen Boswell of Enterprise, who has been at the Baker and Pendleton fairs for the past week returned home on the noon train yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Sommers of Elgin, returned home yesterday from Baker City, where they attended the Baker county fair and the Knight Templar convention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Boatman of Enterprise, were in the city yesterday on their return from Seattle, where they have been taking in the fair. Mr. Boatman is clerk of Wallowa county.

County Assessor and Mrs. B. F. Miller of Wallowa county, returned to their home in Enterprise today after visiting Mrs. Miller's relatives in this city. Mrs. Miller's father E. P. Sarrett of West Virginia, has arrived and will visit his daughters and grand daughters in La Grande until Christmas, when he will go to Portland to visit other relatives. Covey Sarrett is in company with his father.

Engineer Parker returned today from a visit spent in Portland.

A marriage license was issued today to William Mitchell and Jesse McHoaten.

Miss Greta Jackson left today for her future home in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Prof. J. D. Stout has returned from Baker City, where he attended the meeting of the Shriners.

Mrs. W. K. Davis and baby daughter Elizabeth, are in the city from North Powder.

A. B. Huelat of North Yakima, Washington, but formerly of this city is in La Grande shaking hands with old time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hanson have moved from Telocaset to La Grande for the winter and will occupy one of Mrs. Zuber's cottages.

Mrs. A. Antoinette Stiles left last evening for Union where she will pay an official visit to the Order of Eastern Star at that place.

Rev. Canfield of the M. E. church, South, preached his first sermon yesterday to a well pleased audience. He left this morning for Milton to help move his family here.

C. E. Wainwright, who has been visiting his brother W. Wainwright of South La Grande, for the past three months, left this morning for Walla Walla, where he has decided to engage in the grocery business.

E. Polack of the City Grocery, accompanied by his brother-in-law Sebastian and Rupert Schwaiger of North Platte, Nebraska, are in Portland on business and pleasure. The North Platte people are touring the coast and Mr. Polack went with them to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Halley accompanied by their two children and Will Peare will sail from Ireland Wednesday morning. Miss Minnie Joy, a niece of Mrs. Halley will also be of the party. In New York Mrs. M. Thealan will join the tourists, and return to La Grande with them.

Mrs. Averill, one of the wealthiest sheep owners in Wallowa county, returned home today after coming to La Grande to send her nephew to the hospital. Mrs. Averill reports the sheep industry more prosperous even than that of the cattle and hogs. She says her son has an offer of $6 per head for his large flock of ewes.

Dr. W. D. McMillan
Painless Dentistry
La Grande National Bank Bldg.
Both Phones