MAY FORM CHORAL CLUB

A choral union club may be the outgrowth of the special chorus now working under Prof. Bridges, preparing for fair week. About 25 singers are now training in the chorus. It is hoped this number may be increased to about 75 to do regular work on some heavier choruses for special concert purposes.

In discussing the possibilities of a choral club in La Grande, last evening several musicians expressed themselves as anxious for such a thing to materialize as Prof. Bridges is an able and popular director. The city also has a number of good singers to form a nucleus for an excellent chorus.

Believed Dead: Comes to Life.

Even up for dead twenty years ago by his relatives, who had not seen him since he had left home some twelve years before that, Hume Bissell, now of Omaha, Neb., started his sister Mrs. William Doby of this city yesterday with a telegram announcing the fact that he was coming to see her and make a brief visit. The supposed dead man was very much alive when he arrived in Baker and tells some interesting experiences of his wanderings apart from home and family. For many years he was located in Arizona and he may decide after spending some little time here to return to that state. Mrs. Doby, of course, was more than delighted to find the brother whom she had so long supposed dead, and their reunion is a most happy one.—Baker City Democrat.
