NO CONTEST SEEMS LIKELY

TWO LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS
WILL RENDER NUMBERS.

L. D. S. Chorus Planning Junquet
Through Three Counties.

Although the chorus contest may not materialize on account of the outside choruses failing to enter, La Grande singers are working loyally and will boost the program with two choruses. The L. D. S. tabernacle choir under Director James Hood, is practicing regularly and will sing the contest number on Thursday evening for the assistance their valuable services will be to the entertainment committee. The Mormon singers of this city were especially anxious to meet the musicians from Baker, but that aggregation would not come through with their chorus.

Director Hood and the officers of the well organized choir are planning a series of concerts to be given in this section of the state this winter. They will sing two or three times in La Grande and appear in each of the towns of the country and perhaps enter Wallowa and Baker counties. These concerts are to be given for the benefit of the training to the singers and the cultivation of the musical taste of the people.

Leaders in both musical circles in La Grande feel that there is a splendid opportunity for the organization of a class choral society in La Grande this winter. La Grande has the population, the singers, the leaders, and the wealth to support a great musical organization and it is thought that if the proper steps are taken all the musical elements of the city may be united into one society for operatic work.

AT FERGUSON'S

"Where Nothing is Too Much Trouble"

A Splendid Company Coming.
Commencing next Monday night, October 4th, Opera House, the Eckhardt company supporting Miss Josephine Defry, in an excellent selection of high-class plays comes to this city for an engagement of one week, omitting Thursday, October 7th. The first nights offering will be "The Captain and The Lady," and if you fail to see it you will have missed a wonderful performance of a very interesting comedy. It is one of the distinguished and immediate successes which swept into favor. It will be the first time this brilliant comedy has been in this city. There is a succession of psychological surprises, an intense undercurrent that keeps one quite apart from the delight in the searching satire, the double-edged humor in the sparkling lines. Judging from conventional dramatic standards, as it is written in the recognized key of pure comedy, is one of the best of modern times. The play will be beautifully staged and the most magnificently acted production yet attempted by Mr. Eckhardt's splendid company. The gowns worn by Miss Josephine Defry and Miss Georgia Nichols are the handsomest and richest ever seen on the stage and are said to be wonderful creations. The prices for each night will be 10 cts, 20 cts and 30 cts.
