JUST REFLECT.

It is not necessary to put with the inconvenience of poor sight these days—further more it is foolish to neglect having your eyes properly attended to.

If you suffer from headaches, nervousness, you will find it will pay you to have your eyes examined, as in nine cases out of ten the trouble lies there.

We can give you an expert examination—fit you with the correct glasses if they are necessary.

Amusements of the Week

COMING WEEK REPLETE WITH STRONG NUMBERS IN THEATRICAL LINES, INCLUDING GRAND OPERA, "PAID IN FULL" AND TWO CARDS AT THE PASTIME.

Next week, theatrically, is an important one, for real grand opera is to be introduced on a large scale, and then too, the city is to see "Paid in Full," though it comes under a different name. "The Captain and The Lady" is the name of the piece which really is that masterpiece, "Paid in Full."

Manager Steward feels justly jubilant over the fact that he has secured the International Grand Opera company, for an engagement of one performance at the Opera House theatre on Thursday, October 7th. The company numbers seventy-nine artists, and an orchestra of thirty. This is by far the largest organization of its kind ever seen in La Grande, besides being the largest opera company on tour. Manager Steward announces that the price of tickets are $3.00 to 75 cents.

MME. TERRY AND SIGN OR ARCARGELI WITH INTERNAT ONAL OPERA COMPANY.

"The Captain And The Lady." Will be the opening play of the engagement of the Eckhardt company ably supporting Miss Josephine Deffry, in this city commencing next Monday, October 4th. Steward's Opera house, for a stay of one week omitting Thursday, October 7th. "The Captain and The Lady" abounds in bright and brilliant lines and is highly entertaining. It is beautifully mounted and rich in cos-umes and crowned with incidents and climaxes in a handsomely artistic setting and every act abounds with incidents. The piece will be beautifully mounted in the correct and painstaking way which marks all the plays produced under the management of Mr. Oliver J. Eckhardt. Prices 10 cts., 20 cts., and 30 cts. Reserved seats on sale at J. Van Euren's Cigar store.

QUALITY DETERMINES SUCCESS.

Quality indicates the man; Quality makes the merchant; Quality you will remember long after the price has been forgotten. The quality and prices of the goods piled up and scattered around this store will tell you whether or not this is the right place to get the right quality at the right prices.

Yes, it would be easy to go ahead and enumerate all kinds of drugs, medicines, stationery, toilet goods, books, combs, brushes, etc. But what's the use? It isn't just things you're after. You want quality, articles of merit, and things that are pure and wholesome. This is not a little, dingy place. It's a drug store with lots of good goods for good people. It's a drug store of quality, and the best in the beginning is the cheapest in the end.

Business principles that are broad, honorable and fair to all, form the keystone for a united friendship.
