SPELLING MATCH SOON

All arrangements for the big spelling match on Friday afternoon are about completed. Superintendent Churchill of Baker City, has consented to be present to pronounce. From present indications there will be about 40 selected spellers in line. Each town in the county and each country school will be represented.

In order that La Grande may be well represented, Superintendent J. D. Stout will visit the grades and conduct a tryout. Prospects are for a most exciting and entertaining contest. It is practically certain every school in the county will have delegations present to "root" their representative spellers.
