REPORTS OF CITY OFFICIALS

MACADAM BID WILL BE ACTED ON TONIGHT.

Council Meeting's Routine Matters Will be Important Phase.

Routine matters at the council meeting tonight will be both instructive and interesting. Reports of the officials are due.

The chief of police will report that during the past month eight arrests were made, no contagious diseases reported and eight cows and eight horse impounded.

The water superintendent will report that 177 feet of new water main have been placed and that 15 leaks and one fire hydrant have been repaired.

The street superintendent will report that $33.60 have been expended on street repairs (labor.)

The recorder's report will show that receipts from the city scales for the month are $3.40; from fines and costs $71.50, and that no dog taxes were issued.

Another matter to receive consideration tonight is the bid of John L. Mars for the macadamizing of Adams avenue from Hemlock to the county road. This bid was the only one resultant for advertising for bids recently and at the last special meeting it was turned over to the street committee.

MAY BE A CRIME.

Cremation at Cornucopia Brings Out Suspicion of Foul Play, it is Claimed.

A Cornucopia special to the Baker City Herald, says:

Sheriff Ed Rand and Prosecuting Attorney W. S. Levens have apparently finished their work here which consisted of investigating the report that foul play had preceded a fire that destroyed the home of Olie Rood on Wednesday of last week in which three babies were burned to death.

The officials gave out no statement of any kind before leaving Cornucopia and it is not known what information they secured while here. This community has a few citizens who are suspicious of the whole matter and a belief that crime was attached to the fire seems to lurk in their minds.

So far as anyone here knows, however, there is nothing to warrant such a conclusion.

The Baker county officials are now on their way to Baker City.

Feasting Tomorrow.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve their dinner tomorrow in the K. of P. hall from 11 until 2 o'clock. The occasion will take on the nature of a social gathering where good things to eat and a good time generally will be enjoyed by those who attend for their dinners.
