PENDLETON SPIRIT EVIDENT

IMPORTANT FEATURES OF THE FAIR FROM INDIAN CITY.

Woolen Mills Display And Academy Booth Both Important.

Visitors at the exposition are duly appreciative of the spirit shown by Pendleton people in bringing to the fair the high class exhibition seen there. The Pendleton blankets to be seen in the park association booth, bespeak the revival on a larger and better scale one of the industries that has made the Indian city famous in days gone by. Under the Bishop brothers, the Pendleton Woolen mills are humming and do credit to all Eastern Oregon.

Pendleton academy, that well known institution in which Union county young people both study and teach, has become a junior college, and offers two years additional to the academic course. It has a booth here in charge of Mrs. Crayne, one of the best known educators in the Inland Empire. In one end of the booth domestic and science and most approved methods of conducting a well ordered home are portrayed. In the other end of the booth the college course is illustrated.

To attempt an explanation of who Major Lee Moorehouse is and how he came by the wonderful display of Indian historical relics would be a reflection upon the intelligence of the people, for every man or woman who has been in the northwest for any considerable time knows of him. He is an asset to Pendleton and the people of his home town realize and appreciate the fact. Union county realizes after attending the fair that the "Pendleton Spirit" is still living.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Never Known To Fail.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872 and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind., Ter. For sale by all good dealers.

POETIC ADDRESS.

M. L. Carter Gives Away to Poetry

In Writing Address.

The local postoffice officials today sent a letter to the following address, plainly written on the envelope: Mrs. Anna Jenkins Gregg. The lady this is for. Lives on the Rural No. two, That starts from Doumore; Where the perplexing question That presents itself each day, Is how to make an old farm In Lancaster County, Pa. The tuneful address was penned by the poetic hand of M. L. Carter of Alicel, and of course the letter will reach Mrs. Anna Jenkins Gregg, Doumore, Lancaster County, Pa., safely.

Big Hog Prices.

T. T. Glenn of Summerville sold 10 head of hogs to Chattin & Wade yesterday for which he received a check for $217.50. The weight was 2940 pounds, the price paid being 7 1-2 cents per pound. The average weight per hog was 294, which is excellent considering that they were spring pigs. Mr. Glenn is one of the early pioneers of the valley and his memory fails him not, this is the highest prevailing price for hogs since he came here, 'way back in the 60's.

Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. Frank C. Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is sure to effect a cure, and my customer so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference."
