The Eastern Oregon Light & Power company, nee Grande Ronde Electric company, will, on the 15th of this month, move its quarters from its present location on Depot street in the Stoddard building, to the new Foley brick on Adams avenue adjoining the Foley hotel. The task of moving will be carried on with all dispatch, that there may be no break in the service during moving time. Occupancy of the Foley brick fills every available first floor and business office room on Adams avenue, a sharp contrast to other cities in Eastern Oregon.
