A STEADY DRAIN.

Sick Kidneys Weaken the Whole Body

—Make You Ill, Languid

And Depressed.

Sick kidneys weaken the body through the continual drainage of life-giving albumen from the blood into the urine, and the substitution of poisonous uric acid that goes broadcast through the system, sowing the seeds of disease. Loss of albumen causes weakness, languor, depression. Uric poisoning causes rheumatic pain, nervousness, nausea, cricks in the back, gravel and kidney stones. The proper treatment is a kidney treatment, and the best remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is good proof in the following testimonial:

James M. Johnson, Main st., Union, Ore., says: "I can heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, as I know they are a reliable remedy for kidney complaint. Constant standing brought on my kidney trouble and I suffered intensely. A customer first recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me, saying that they had been the means of saving his life. I was induced to try them and in a short time, I was convinced that they lived up to representations. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions since then and have always received prompt relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SNODGRASS OFTEN CLASSED AS UNION'S GRAND OLD MAN

STORY OF HIS PIONEER POLITICAL AND COMMERCIAL LIFE ONE WORTH EMULATING BY HIS FELLOWMEN

HE HAS SUFFERED SEVERAL LARGE FINANCIAL LOSSES

Since April 1, 1867, William J. Snodgrass has resided in Union county and to his efforts can be traced many of the improvements which have characterized the progressive spirit of the valley surrounding La Grande, where Mr. Snodgrass spent the declining years of an active and well spent life. Very soon after arriving here, Mr. Snodgrass established a little general store at Oro Dell trading point, on the Grande Ronde river, a few miles from the present site of La Grande, known as a stage trading post located a mile south of the present site, on the foothills where now is found a splendid residence district.

Active in Politics.

Mr. Snodgrass entered into Oregon politics in 1876, when he was the republican candidate for the state senate from Union county. The district was overwhelmingly Democratic, but Mr. Snodgrass failed by only 32 votes, the smallest majority against any man on the republican ticket. In 1878 Mr. Snodgrass announced his candidacy for congress and had the solid support of a large part of Eastern Oregon for the nomination. In selecting delegates from Union county, George Baker was chosen as chairman, and to him the county looked for support for the candidacy of Mr. Snodgrass.

The trip to the state convention was a tedious one and expensive and but a few of the delegates could go. Proxies was secured by one member and the vote of the county was delivered to him. On the day before the trip should have been taken Mr. Baker's family suddenly became ill and he could not go to the convention. The proxies were turned over to Harvey H. Hines, a Methodist minister and a presiding elder, who had been chosen as one of the delegates, since deceased.

On arriving at the convention Mr. Snodgrass was besieged by a number of place hunters who urged him to make certain pledges to them. This demand was refused. During the night following the conference the pie cutters waited upon Rev. Hines and offered him their support if he would pledge him the places that they asked for. The demand was acceded to and at the convention the following morning Rev. Hines voted the Snodgrass proxies for himself, securing the nomination. The minister went out on the campaign as aggressive as could be imagined yet he was defeated overwhelmingly and Union county voted almost unanimously against him.

Big Stock Venture.

Mr. Snodgrass had his first great reverse in 1880. Having lost heavily on a bond, signed for a friend, Mr. Snodgrass agreed to help the friend "catch his feet" by assisting in driving 4000 head of cattle to the eastern markets. The stock was bought on a contingency, driven to Rock Creek, near the present city of Cheyenne, Wyoming, during which time the severe winter and the shortage of food along the route caused over 3,500 to perish. The loss to the two men, largely falling on Mr. Snodgrass, was $135,000. Not to be cast down by the unfortunate venture Mr. Snodgrass engaged in merchandising in La Grande and had a large business when the fire of July 4, 1891 swept away practically all of his property except his land, without a dollar of insurance.

A Lifelong Odd Fellow.

Mr. Snodgrass has been a lifelong Odd Fellow, having served as grandmaster of the last session of the Oregon grand lodge before the domain of Washington was set off. At that time Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia comprised the domain of Oregon. The large district was cut into parts in 1877. For eight years Mr. Snodgrass served as a member of the La Grande city council, and for a similar period served the people of the school district on the board of education.

CHORUSES WILL SING ON THURSDAY AND FRIDAY NIGHT

Innumerable committee meetings are being held in this city this week. To the busy man of business all these meetings perhaps, pass by unnoticed, but since Monday morning there has been at least a dozen of such conclaves of committee members. The councils are for the purpose of making the coming harvest bazaar next Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Elk's Hall, an event of as great an importance in its sphere as was the county fair.

Those many gatherings of generals and lieutenants have resulted in one Bad Man Arrested.

George Logan, wanted in Wallowa county for alleged complicity in a shooting scrape which occurred there two years ago, was picked up on the streets here yesterday by Deputy Sheriff T. D. Taylor and Deputy Sheriff Wilson and will probably be taken to Enterprise tomorrow. Logan has been in Lewiston nearly ever since the trouble occurred and arrived in Pendleton Thursday evening on his way back to Enterprise where he has a wife and to whom he had been married only a few days when the trouble occurred. No one was killed in the shooting but William Estes who has relatives in this city, received a slight flesh wound. Tom and Dick Whinney and George Tucker, with whom Logan had been associating were directly connected with the affair and Logan says that it was because of his friendship thing, namely, that the bazaar is similar to the A. Y. P., it is ready to open on the opening date.

Among the feature numbers of the evenings attractions will be the two splendid choruses heard at the fair last week. The L. D. S. choir of 60 voices will sing on the opening night, and the Prof. Bridges' choir is slated to sing again on the night following.

A great number of minor yet interesting attractions are planned and the actual presence of bazaar period will be necessary to see all come to light.

for these men that he has been connected with the trouble. The shooting was the direct result of a dance quarrel.—Pendleton E. O.
