HALL WRITES ABOUT FAIR

That Oregon captured the lion's share of grand prizes and gold medals at the A. Y. P. was the statement of William Hall, Union county's special agent at the fair, in a letter received by President Collier of the Commercial Club. He said the state had already carried off several grand prizes thirty gold medals and a host of silver and bronze medals although the fruit, vegetable and nuts have not been heard from. Mr. Hall writes in glowing terms of the success of the great world event and of the closing days. Interest in the Oregon building is not lagging because the closing days are in sight. The horse show was closed Saturday night. The Oregon building will be kept up in fine trim until the last act has been finished.

BABY SHOW ENTRIES IN

LARGE LIST ENTRIES ALREADY WITH COMMITTEE.

Luckies Baby to Carry Off the Valuable prize offered.

A grand rush of babies for the entry to the baby show to be held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Elk's hall, is reported by Mrs. Dr. Richardson who is in charge of the show. Thirty-five have phoned or sent in the names for entry. One baby, Virginia Carmen Hunter is to come from as far away as Wallawa.

The absurd task of selecting the prettiest out of a great crowd of prettiest babies is not going to be imposed upon any unfortunate judge but the prize is going to the luckiest. The physicians of the city have contributed toward the purchase of a solid gold necklace prize. Photographer Ritter has volunteered to make a number of postal cards of the prize winner which may be sold by the ladies.

All babies under 2-1-2 years old may enter. The following 35 were registered this morning:
