TRIP NOW POSTPONED

The business men's junket over the Beaver Creek project planned for today, has been postponed until some day next week. Mr. Lowry the American Light & Power Company's agent was to be the host and was to have as guests, representatives of the Commercial Club, the Merchant's Protective Association and the members of the press. The trip was to include two days, going up one day and returning the next, the time intervening being spent at the company's camps.

To Sing For Sufferers.

Philadelphia, Oct. 15—That versatile gentleman who has done so much toward keeping Quaker City society alive—namely, Anthony J. Drexel Biddle—will make his debut as a concert singer tonight at a charity affair for the benefit of the Mexican flood sufferers and the audience.

He will vie for honors with Senor Carasa, Oscar Hammerstein's new Spanish opera singer, in an intertainment arranged by Senor Jose V. Docal, the Mexican consul in this city, for the benefit of sufferers of the recent Mexican flood which devastated thousands of homes and caused the death of several thousand persons.

INDIAN ROBE RAFFLED OFF

CHURCH AND ROBERTS LEAD AS MATRIMONIAL TIMBER

Three Exceptionally Interesting races
On at the Bazaar this Week.

One-hundred-thirty-two is the number which captured the splendid Indian robe which was raffled off at the bazaar last night, and W. A. Black the husband of Mrs. Margaret Porter Black, was the holder of the lucky number. The blanket was donated to the bazaar by the Pendleton Woolen Mills and was an exceptionally fine one. It cost him 45 cents.

Warm Contest On.

In the race for the best matrimonial catch, the contest grew warm last evening and the voting was heavy. At present W. J. Church and A. A. Roberts are the leading candidates, and each have a good lead on the others. The voting was done in heavy slumps, several dollars often being voted by one man at 5 cents a vote. These contests are to run through the week and will be decided next Saturday night and the fun will be immense, no doubt.

Another contest which is attracting much attention and on which voting was heavy last night is the race for the best cook in Union county. Mrs. Grace Barrie, Mrs. A. S. Geddes and Mrs. T. N. Murphy hold the lead at present.

Still another vote is for the most popular man in the city and the list is both long and closely bunched. These are all to be run until Saturday night and decided at that time.

Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. Frank C. Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is sure to effect a cure, and my customer so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference."
