SUICIDE AT BAKER CITY

Sunday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock Jack La Plant committed suicide by taking carbolic acid in his room at the Klondyke Lodging House, says the Baker City Herald. He was about 35 years of age and has no relatives that are known.

La Plant has been in this vicinity for about five years working in the various mines, having been last employed in the Indiana mine. He came to Baker City about two weeks ago and began tanking up as usual. He had been on a spree since arriving in town but none of his friends noticed any signs of despondency. Cries were heard issuing from his room in the afternoon and people rushed in to find him in terrible agony and detected the odor of carbolic acid. A physician was immediately summoned but the man was dead before he arrived.

Dr. Ison was notified and a jury was empaneled. A verdict of suicide was rendered.
