SECOND NUMBER OF LECTURE COURSE IN SHORT TIME.

Land, Labor and Wealth is the Topic of Lybarger's Address.

The above topic is the subject of the lecture that will be given by Lee Francis Lybarger, the second number of the La Grande lecture course. This number will occur at the Mormon Tabernacle, Monday evening Nov. 15. This lecture will be especially interesting to the people of this valley for the reason that the large majority of the people are day laborers. In this lecture Mr. Lybarger shows the source of the Trust's wealth and power, the methods by which great fortunes are amassed and the cause of the present concentration of wealth. He tells how Rockefeller got rich, how Marshall Fields amassed hundreds of millions. This lecture tells the tragic story of Labor—of its struggles that is centuries old. It is sane, practical, judicial, patriotic, non-partisan, filled with compassion for the oppressed and glowing with true Americanism. The management of the course has made the single admission so reasonable that it will be possible for every man to attend this lecture. The price of the single admission will be 50 cts. Remaining part of the course which includes four lectures can be secured for $1.50 per season ticket. Tickets can be secured at Selders Confectionery, one door west of the post office.
