HOME CURE FOR ECZEMA.

Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, Glycerine, etc., Used as a simple Wash.

It really seems strange that so many people suffer year in and year out with eczema, when it is now no longer a secret that oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol, glycerine, etc., makes a wash that is bound to cure.

Old, obstinate cases, it is true cannot be cured in a few days, but there is absolutely no sufferer from eczema who ever used this simple wash and did not find immediately that wonderful soothing, calm, cool sensation that comes when the itch is taken away. Instantly upon applying a few drops of the wash the itching ceases, the itch is laid, there is no need of experiment—the patient knows at once.

Instead of trying to compound the oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine etc., in the right proportions ourselves we are using a prescription which is universally found the most effective. It is known as the D. D. D. prescription, or Oil of Wintergreen Compound. It is made by the D. D. D. Company of Chicago, and our long experience with this remedy has given us great confidence in its merit. Newlin Drug Company.

LEGAL TILT IN WALLOWA

MANY PROMINENT ATTORNEYS TO DEFEND ONE MAN.

Best Legal Light Will Fight for Tucker's Freedom this Week.

The ground is being broken in Enterprise for one of the hardest legal battles in the history of Union and Wallowa counties. With Judge Knowles at his old custom of running court day and night sessions the term at Enterprise up until last evening had been consumed in getting a jury in the case of the state vs. Tom Tucker. The strongest array of legal talent seen for years on the side of a case has been lined up on the defense. Judge Fee of Pendleton is there and has as his colleagues, John L. Rand of Baker City, Hon. Jerry Rusk of Joseph, and Attorneys Burligh and Boyd of Enterprise.

Few Eastern Oregon criminals have had a more desperate record than that which the crime charged against Tucker compose. The man has twice served time in the penitentiary. His brother, George Tucker, has served a sentence in the penitentiary for being involved in the same crime for which he is now being tried. The man on trial was arrested about the middle of May in Montana. He was located through the Canadian officials who being unable to capture him informed the Wallowa county officials of his whereabouts.

The story of the crime charged against Tom Tucker dates back to a dance given at the home of Oliver Hepburn near Joseph, June 21, 1907. A crowd composed of Tom Tucker, leader, his wife, Norflett Rogan and wife, George Tucker, Dick McKinney and others. During the evening a row was kicked up and the defendant, his brother, Dick Kinney and two men were accused by the state of participating in a riot and beating up Hepburn.

Hepburn escaped from the house and made his way to town where he got his wounds dressed and swore out a warrant for the arrest of the present defendant and Bogan. Both men pleaded guilty and were fined $50 each in the justices court. The fines were allowed to go unpaid and the men left for the sheep camp of Peter Bauduan.

At the sheep camp another fight ensued in which one William Estes was shot in the thigh. The three men escaped but later McKinney was captured, tried and sent up for three years but was pardoned by Governor Chamberlain just before he left the governors chair for the United States senate.

In July 1908 George Tucker gave himself up and was tried before Judge Knowles for the riot act at Hepburn's home and was acquitted. He has not yet been tried for the crime at the sheep camp. A little over a year ago, Tom Tucker was arrested in Washington but through the premature publication of his freedom through habeas corpus proceedings. He made his way into Canada. In Canada he got into more trouble and then fled into Montana where he was arrested and then brought back to Wallowa county.

A True View of Disease.

Before the British Association recently, Dr. F. F. Smith declared his conviction that the chief requisite to success in typhoid cases was to "treat the typhoid patient and not the typhoid fever." It thus transpires that the advanced medical thought is trending toward the attitude which osteopathy has taken from the outset—in fact osteopathy always did treat the patient and not the disease, not only in typhoid fever, but under all other conditions.

The logical correctness of this attitude is manifest; for it must be admitted at once that disease is not a thing apart from the natural operations of the body, but simply the evidence that a derangement of its normal physiological process has taken place, and that correction is called for. So that whatever may be the disease, it is the patient that must be treated, and when body correction has been made so that all the detail work involved in the body processes may again be conducted naturally, the manifestations of disease soon cease.

If you do become afflicted with a "cold" or with la grippe, the circumstance furnishes an excellent opportunity for you to learn the thorough effectiveness of Osteopathic treatment. In case of la grippe the treatment means the shortening of the period of suffering by at least one half. Isn't that worth while?—Osteopathy Health.
