

SCRUPULOUS CARE

is given to every prescription we compound—we not only use ordinary methods to safe-guard your interests—but extraordinary care in the handling of all poisons. Every drug we use in compounding is of the required strength, is pure and can be banked on to produce the required results. The life of the patient hangs on the skill and care of the prescription clerk. If you like to feel perfectly safe, bring your next prescription here.

PLANNING DATE FOR MEETING

JOHN COLLIER, DIRECTOR, ASKED FOR SUGGESTIONS.

Meeting of State Merchants Protective Association Undecided.

Merchant's Association is in receipt of a letter from the secretary of the state organization asking for suggestions as to the date and place for the holding of the state convention. The secretary suggested January 26 and 27 at Eugene. The first half of the program is to be devoted to matters of general interest of the merchants of the country while the second half is to be devoted to the problems of the groceryman.

La Grande will be represented in the state organization. John Collier is a member of the board of directors, while E. Pollock is a member of the finance committee. The date of meeting late in January is acceptable to most business men as it does not interfere with the new year invoicing.

LITTLE SON SCALDED.

Oldest Son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheets Meets With Accident.

Little Cleland Sheets was severely scalded this morning at the home of his parents, 2614 Twelfth Street. He was close to the kitchen range where Mrs. Fred Sheets had a boiler of hot water preparing for the family washing when the water boiled over and about a gallon of it struck the little boy on the head, neck and shoulders. It is a very severe burn but the close attention that he is receiving insures recovery.—Baker-City Herald.

Railroad Men Meet.

A meeting of the members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was held in the K. of P. hall yesterday afternoon to talk over matters relating to the two orders and the railroad company, and for the purpose of bettering the condition of both concerned. The meetings will be held from time to time as occasion may require.
