GIVE IT A FAIR TRIAL.

The few months preceding the last issue was whether or not Statement No. 1 was to be adopted, now we have the assembly problem to fight out. Those who get their fingers scorched in the last campaign might take a lesson in the school of experience. The present system, while it is new and subject to some criticism nevertheless, the rottenness of the old convention system in this state was the cause of the people adopting the direct primary law, and the memory of the past will keep many from desiring to retrace their steps. Better give the new law a few more trials before it is declared a failure. Remember the state has been rid of bosses for at least two years, something that has not been possible for the preceding twenty-five.

DANGER IN SIGHT.

A leader or a statesman is certainly needed in Spokane. Things should be called to a halt. Both sides are playing the game too strong and neither side is big enough to give and take, so that matters could straighten out of themselves. Instead of putting the would-be orators on a rock pile, under present conditions, they had better give them a barbaque and sentence them individually to speak for two hours in the center of the street. Of course talk and suggestions are cheap at a long distance, but if something is not done, and that very soon, the undertakers will be reaping a harvest while the nation is being dishonored.

CANNON IN DANGER.

Six weeks hence congress will assemble and the indications are that this will be one of the liveliest sessions held in many years. Uncle Joe Cannon will have to keep his ear pretty close to the ground or he may have difficulty in retaining his seat. It does not seem possible to defeat him, he is a man of large experience and it no doubt would be a loss to the country in general if he were, but it is evident that he has abused his power and if he does not follow a more open door policy it might be beneficial to the country at large to retire him to his seat on the floor.

FURNITURE FACTORY NEEDED.

There seems to be a splendid opening in this city for a small furniture factory. After it was thoroughly established it might not be so small. Most all large factories had a beginning. During the last few weeks freight rates have advanced and this would materially help a local industry. There are many thousands of dollars worth of pine and fir furniture shipped into Baker, Union, Wallowa and Umatilla counties that could be made just as cheap here as in Portland or Tacoma.

COMPANY MEN VISIT PLANT

MANAGER HARMON AND EASTMAN CAPITALISTS HERE.

Have With Them Engineer Who Installed Present Water System.

Manager F. A. Harmon of the Eastern Oregon Light & Power Company and Superintendent C. A. Fernald of Baker City, are in La Grande today looking over the line and plants recently purchased from the Grande Ronde Electric Company. With them are E. G. Cummings and Hedford Shore and George G. Shedd, two of the eastern capitalists who are interested jointly with the Baker City men in the big projects in Eastern Oregon.

The party came in last evening from Cove, where they have been inspecting the power plant and today will visit Morgan lake. This is Superintendent Fernald's first visit to La Grande although Manager Harmon has been here a number of times.

Engineer Cummings is the man who planned the Morgan lake enterprise for the old company. When asked regarding the possibilities of the Eastern Oregon Light and Power Company putting in electric railroads Manager Harmon said the company contemplated no direct work in that line now. He said that they were preparing, however, to furnish power to any other company that might plan to build a line.

Mr. Cummins 17 years ago put in the present water work system for La Grande and has been identified with several big engineering projects of the Eastern portion of Oregon. He is naturally interested in the new water project which is to displace the old one of such long standing.

LOCAL PLATHOUSES.

The thirty-two youngest, and it is safe to say the prettiest, girls ever seen in musical comedy will be found in "Lo," on Monday night at the Steward opera house. All but five of them were totally inexperienced when they attended their first rehearsal and as a consequence they work with a dash and enthusiasm which is impossible to obtain with more blasé and experienced girls.

The work is play to them and they smile and laugh and romp through the eighteen musical numbers which A. Baldwin Sloan wrote for "Lo" with as much enjoyment as have the audience itself. When "Lo" is presented here, it will have been played only about 30 times and as a consequence, the costumes and scenery are all absolutely new and fresh, for it goes to the Grand Opera House, Chicago for a long run very soon. Absolutely no expense was spared in producing it. Already people all over the country are whistling its "Little Old Main Street," "You can Always be My Sweetheart," "Tammany on Parade," "Good morning Mr. Sailor," "Snap Shots," and "Yucatan." The seat sale opens Saturday at Van Buren's. Price 50c to $1.50. These are the same prices charged for "Lo" at the Bungalow theatre Portland, November 12 and 13, and during its phenomenal two week's engagement in Seattle.

"Happy Hooligan" Last Night.

One of the largest houses for several weeks ventured out last night to the Scenic theatre to witness "Happy Hooligan" a "45 minutes from ennui" comedy and it is not overestimating when we say they laughed 44 minutes of the 45. This scream maker will be on at the Scenic for the balance of the week with Saturday matinee and closes Sunday night. Come and have a laugh with Hooligan.

E-RU-SA—THE ONLY LAWFUL FLEA CURE.
 Because it does not contain narcotics, mercury, cocaine, lead or any poisonous drugs. Because E-RU-SA cures flies. U. S. Dispensary recommends every ingredient of E-RU-SA. Drug laws make "false or misleading statements" a crime. E-RU-SA is the only medicine that cures flies. This medicine is illegal because they affect the brain and spinal marrow, produce constipation and never cure. Only druggists of highest standing sell and endorse E-RU-SA.
