HOME FEVER CONTINUES

JENSON NOW BUILDING BUNGALOW NEAR COURT HOUSE.

Several Others Under Consideration For Early Spring.

Steady, consistent and persistent is the building mania which has seized La Grande. Even though on the threshold of wintertide, the fever is undampened, and while the month of November has seen an unusually lively movement in city property, building has been conducted with equal vigor.

Among the latest to take immediate steps toward erecting a modern bungalow cottage, is L. M. Jenson the Imbler merchant, who hereafter will spend the winter months in this city. He is now awaiting cement for the foundation of a neat little bungalow, just north of the Courthouse, overlooking the city.

Among the other buildings planned are the two which Mr. Griffith, of Portland, will build this winter or next Spring on his four acre tract on Ash street. They will be for renting purposes.

Two new bungalows are to be erected on Washington avenue early in the Spring, if present plans mature, but the prospective builders are undecided as to plans and are not ready to announce the improvements definitely for a month or two yet.

Money Comes in Bunches.

to A. A. Chrisholm of Treadwell N. Y., now... His reason is well worth reading: "For along time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness and general debility," he writes. "I couldn't sleep, had no appetite, nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of all medical treatment. Then used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It is a wonderful medicine. Infalible for Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Blood and Nerves. 50c at the Newell Drug Company."

EARLY ORDER HELPS SOME

HOUSEWIVES COULD ALLEVIATE MUCH OF TROUBLE.

Early Ordering of Groceries Should Be Always Practiced.

Now that winter is coming on and short cold days are the order of business the business men of the city are beginning to wonder if the housewives of the city will not be sufficiently considerate of the teams and the deliverymen to do their ordering early in the day. They maintain that this could be done easily with a little forethought.

It does not require a very long stretch of the imagination to picture the expression on the face of a delivery boy who is given a bunch of orders from Old Town or the Sugar Factory district, for instance, at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon. It is also easy to see the hardships worked on the horses, too for it is harder to pull the wagons about all day in the kind of streets that are found at this time of the year. Just a little thoughtful, missionary spirit will help matters decidedly.
