It is probable that the entire record of business houses in this city will be closed all day Thanksgiving. The grocery men have made this decision today and the barbers have followed suit. The barber shops will remain open late Wednesday night.

While no paper has been circulated among the drygoods and hardware men the majority of them expressed a willingness to close all day. Some said that they would close at noon, whatever happened. With sentiment in favor of closing all day the matter will probably be settled definitely tomorrow in favor of closing all day.

Judge Bennett, of The Dalles, is in the city today.

Paul Sperry of Pendleton, came in today to look after his sheep breeding business at Elgin.

At The Scenic.

This certainly is the best week of entertainment ever offered the public at this popular house. Willie and Doll act is simply immense. Uncle Tom is good and the pictures, 2000 feet, are the best, so says Mr. Gardiner, that has ever been thrown on canvas.

PAYS FINE; RELEASED

Two dollars per day is not proving as satisfactory to the inmates of the jail as it was thought at first. Millard Nelson paid his fine last evening and this morning went to work at his old job of firing for the O. R. & N. company.

There is fresh talk of "Billy" Donaldson being paid out. His wife is sick and he is exceedingly restless, walking the floor almost all of the time. Atkinson, too, has hopes of freedom today.

SOCIETY.

Through the zeal of the Island City Ladies the Boys and Girl's Aid Society of Portland is soon to be in receipt of another comforting gift in the way of a fine quilt. The ladies of the Sunday School met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fred Kiddle and tied the comforter which the girls of the Clover Leaf Class had pieced. The afternoon was extremely enjoyable from a social point of view. Refreshments were served.

The Tuesday Musicals met this afternoon but no program was carried out. The afternoon was devoted to business affairs chiefly, permitting all back and unfinished business to be cleaned off the slate.

The Presbyterian Church Aid Society will conduct a mince pie and all kinds of cake sale at Bohenkamp's tomorrow. Those desiring pastry reserved should phone to Black 1812 to-night.
