How to cure a Cold.
 Be as careful as you can, you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to affect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. For sale by all good dealers.

The Completeness of our records.
 We have one index that leads with unfailing accuracy to every recorded transaction affecting the title of any lot or parcel of land in the county. It is a dragnet which nothing can escape.

To get this information from the public records at the court house would be like hunting a needle in a hay stack.

You could never know what your record was until.

Besides this index we have all the necessary modern helps to finding out things about the title—taxes, judgment, liens, decrees and the like.

All right here under one roof—no need to go any further.

J. R. Oliver has the only competent set of abstracts in Union county.

COVE TAKES LAST GAME

GRUELLING CONTEST WITNESSED ON LOCAL FIELD.

Coveltes and Followers Go Home in High Glee Over Game.

Displaying a remarkable gift of detecting the direction of La Grande's plays, playing like demons themselves Cove was yesterday able to ring down the curtain on the 1909 high school football in this city with a narrow defeat for the home team.

Cove scored early in the game called at the Lincoln Park considerably before the home team had had time to get into the game. It was a gruelling game and La Grande "died" trying valiantly to overcome the lead attained by Cove when after a series of rapid fire punts Cove ran 25 yards for the only touch down of the game. Only once did La Grande get back into dangerous territory for Cove and that time their hardest efforts failed to register a touchdown, notwithstanding that Meyers on a tripple pass, which defeated Cove last year—ran 20 yards to be downed on the 20-yard line. From here the ball was worked to the 9-yard line but Cove held. La Grande in turn forced Cove to punt the kick going short, allowing La Grande to again work forward until a fumble stopped the progress.

It was Meyers, the Cove left end, well known in the county for his prowess in professional and semi-professional baseball circles, that spelled victory for Cove. With a tremendous speed and aggressiveness he broke up play after play before they were under way. His speed often carried him to the scene of the play in time to stop attacks aimed at the opposite direction. It seemed as though he and Chenault took turns about, Chenault coming through from his guard position.

Aside from these two men Cove has only ordinary players in the line up. Aside from the aggressiveness of the two men named, who by the way, on the average stopped 9 out of ten plays before they were gotten under way, Cove had the ability, super-human, human or mechanical—the spectators will probably never know which—to direct their defense at the exact location and at the exact moment where and when La Grande's offense would strike. Cove's linemen were directed almost with faultless precision where to expect the attack as soon as the play had been outlined.

Cove tried the forward pass repeatedly, and made three successful ones. Two failures in succession were responsible for La Grande getting close to the goal. The locals tried it several times, too, and pulled off two lucky ones. On its punts which were recovered by speedy ends and tackles, La Grande made the greatest yardage. La Grande tried hard but failed.

Cove has an active team; a determined team and a lucky team. Jim Dobbins, Ralph Reynolds and Doctor Zimmerman were the officials of the game. Due to the commendable conduct of the players and the watchful eyes of the officials, the game passed off without a single instance of distasteful incidents to mar the attraction.

"For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is sure to effect a cure, and my customer so certain to appreciate my recommendation that I give it the preference." For sale by all good dealers.
