NEW HOIST FOR HOSE WILL BE MADE

NEW FIRE TOWER BEING CONSTRUCTED AT CITY HALL.

Exact Specifications for the Tower Machinery Not Decided On as Yet.

Just what method or plan is to be adopted in the new hose tower being built in connection with the new city hall, is bothering Chief of Fire Department Jones and Contractor Slater. The tower is practically finished so far as the superstructure is concerned, but no definite decision has been reached as to how the hose is to be hoisted up into the tower. The present unsatisfactory methods to drain the hose after a fire by laying it on a shelf, piece by piece. Whenever the final plans are decided on it will be possible to hoist the hose into the tower by machinery of some sort.

The brick work on the new city offices is well under way and Contractor expects to finish the walls this week.

BUGLE BAND COMING.

Big Attraction in the Steward Opera House December 7.

The Bugle Band, which is making such a phenomenal run over the Coast will be in La Grande December 7. Of this attraction, the Vancouver News says:

Very successful was the Bugle Band Concert given in the opera house last night. Not only did the excellence of the performance delight the large audience present, but much enthusiasm was evoked. The well chosen numbers rendered under the direction of Lieut. McManus was splendidly played, and too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the precision, admirable tact, fine tone and skillful rendition and execution of the instruments.

"The Last Post," was capitally given while the "Naval Squad," was exceedingly pleasing and the "Bayonet Exercise and Physical Drill," were greatly enjoyed by the audience. In the file and drum section was introduced the sensational drummer Neilson which drew forth many rounds of applause.

Of Madame Louise Brehaney, many charming things may be said; she has a lovely, well cultivated voice, and last night sang a wide variety of solos in a delightful fashion. The range of her voice extending over three octaves is phenomenal, and her notes, moreover are clear and sweet to an unusual degree.

IBEX IN OREGON.

The Only Known Herd on the American Continent.

According to W. R. Parker of Baker City, Oregon has the only herd of Ibex known to exist on the American continent. He discovered the rare animal in the vicinity of Mount Eagle in the Cornucopia range and urges that a game preserve be created there for their preservation. Unless this is done, Mr. Parker fears that the Ibex will be exterminated by hunters.

Professor George Hendricks returned this morning from an extended trip to La Grande and other cities in the Inland Empire. He reports that business is flourishing in every community.—The Dales Chronicle.

Ownership By Heirs.

It often happens that a man dies owning real estate without having made his will.

The title of such lands passes by force of law to the heirs of the deceased. They each then hold an equal undivided interest.

If there are five, the deed of four will not convey a perfect title.

Such an incomplete conveyance is often the source of endless trouble.

Should the purchaser not happen to know of the existence of the fifth heir he may be unconscious of the flaw in his title, and may be evicted years afterward through no fault of his own.

Take no such chances. Demand an abstract from T. R. Oliver.
