START GAME AT 7 O'CLK

BOTH TEAMS READY FOR FRACAS ON RINK FLOOR TONIGHT.

Club Team and High School Team to Open Basketball Season.

Much good natured rivalry prevails over the high school-Blue Mountain boys game at the rink at seven o'clock tonight. Both teams are as fit as the short practice period they have had will permit, and they expect to fight it out along scientific lines to a finish. While the high school has the more experienced players, the club team has enough players of "Varsity" caliber to make the game close. The Club team will line up about as follows: Lottes and Cecil Bolton, guards; Geen or Hohenkamp center, Curry, Meyers or Grady, forwards. The game starts promptly at 7 with F. E. Zimmerman as the official of the contest.

Long Dance at Summerville.

M. O. George and Terry Tuttle went to Summerville last Friday evening, where they furnished music for a dance. A marathon waltz was announced after midnight, a prize being offered for the couple staying on the floor the longest time. After four hours and ten minutes or at 5:10 a. m. the manager called the dance off while three couples were still on the floor. During this entire time the music never stopped and the local musicians say that it is the world's record for long playing.—Elgin Recorder.

Debate Team Working.

The Elgin debating team, says the Elgin Recorder is working hard to prepare for the debate which will take place the first Friday in January with Enterprise and La Grande. The question is, "Resolved that the Galveston plan of Government Applied to New York Would correct the Prevalent political vices of that city." The members of the affirmative side are Noná Austin, Robert Brock and Beatrice Littlefield. Of the negative, Lillian Morris, Bennie Benschadler and Edith Bailey.

"Roanoke" Tomorrow Night.

By request of the many patrons of the Pastime the National Stock Company will repeat "Roanoke" the beautiful southern melo-drama Sunday night. Another good crowd saw the second performance of "The New Minister" last night which was an improvement on the performance of the night before. Tonight is the last time that you will have the pleasure of seeing this wonderful play. Don't forget "Roanoke" tomorrow night.

Refrigerator Cars.

Refrigerator cars will leave Portland Tuesdays and Thursdays for the accommodation of shippers of perishable goods. All goods not shipped in these cars will be at the owner's risk. Perishable freight going east from La Grande will be loaded in these cars.
