MEETINGS COMPLETED.

Assessor Rinehart Expected Home Tonight from Salem Meeting

County Assessor T. A. Rinehart is expected home from Salem tonight. The meeting of the County Assessors was concluded in that city Thursday night and the assessors left for their home yesterday morning. But Mr.

Rinehart is transacting business in Portland before returning.

The meeting was an important one. It was also attended by Tax Commissioner Eaton of Union, who was one of the men who delivered addresses to the assessors while the session was being held.

R. W. Leigh left this morning on a business trip to Enterprise.

CHURCHES.

Baptist Church Notes.

We speak of the good old days—the charming graces and courtly ways. But do we forget that they did not know "Unceasing Bread." The soda cracker that is the delight of this day and generation. But in the good old days they did know "Unceasing Church." If the churches of our city were removed today business men and others would be rushing to the newspapers with their sale ads saying: "I am going to get out of this God forsaken town." And yet there seem to be intelligent men who say, "away with churches and preachers." Kindly remember that we are doing business on the corner of Sixth and Spring streets. We are helping to save souls of lost men and women for Christ, to advance the value of property, for more business for business men, for education in the public schools and many other public spirited enterprises. Services every Sunday morning and evening. The theme for Sunday morning will be "Christian stewardship." In the Evening the Union Temperance meeting. Franklin E. Gray, pastor.
