IMPORTANT MEETING

FARMERS AND DIRECTORS WILL MEET TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Decide on Wording of Contract for the Prospective Water Users.

No meeting of recent months is of more importance to the valley than a committee meeting tomorrow at 1 o'clock between the five representatives from the prospective water users and the directors of the Grande Ronde Irrigation Company. The men to represent the waterusers are Duncan McDonald, Sam Brooks, C. D. Huffmann, John McAllister and J. A. Thronson. These men will agree with the directors on what clauses and the wording of the clauses that are to constitute the contract to be signed for the waterusers. In meetings past, it became clear that there are no material differences in the demands of the waterusers and the stipulation of the contract already prepared. Things the farmers are demanding are included in the present contract, but the phraseology is not to their liking. At tomorrow's meeting the contract will be worded so as to embody the features now contained in it, but in different language.

BIG GAME SURE.

Baker City Stars to Meet The All-star Pendleton Aggregation

Baker City, Dec. 17.—A football game, such as has never before been seen here will be played on New Years day because two of the best teams that ever met in Eastern Oregon will engage in a battle royal. Pendleton has organized, or will organize what they are proud to term an all star team and have sent challenges to many cities. Baker was among the many cities challenged and the boys here decided to line up the heaviest and fastest team that ever played on the local gridiron. Among the players will be Menzie McKim, for the past two years coach of the Baker High and acknowledged to be the fastest quarter ever turned out of a high school, who will play quarter for the locals. Henry McKinney, whose reputation extends all over the northwest, will play fullback while Enberg of O. A. C., and Holley of Oregon will play halves. Dodson of Oregon will play right end and Borman of Baker left end. Jones of Baker High will play right guard, and Fred Warner or Dr. Noiz left guard. Hall of Baker has been chosen for left tackle. Finley of Baker high will play center. Coach Nichols expects to begin putting the players through their paces about Christmas and will give them a week of hard training before the big game. The visitors will have the same time for training and will have many college players of the northwest in their lineup. It will be the biggest game ever played here and undoubtedly a large crowd will witness the struggle.
