TO PUBLISH AN ANNUAL

It has been decided at a recent meeting of the Junior class of the High School to publish an annual. It is the custom in all colleges and in many of the high schools to publish yearly a large book, well illustrated and neatly bound, which tells about the school, its inhabitants and its doings. It is also the custom of the Junior class to publish this work.

The Juniors of La Grande have decided to put out the best school annual that has ever been published in Oregon. It will be a large volume, illustrated with many half tones and engravings and will be a credit to La Grande as well as the school. Of course it will take considerable money to successfully consummate such an enterprise, but the Juniors expect to easily obtain what is necessary to accomplish their task. Indication seem to make certain that at least a circulation of one thousand copies can be secured. Besides, a copy will be sent to every high school and college in Oregon and many in Idaho and Washington. With the generosity of the public a creditable publication will thus be distributed over the North West which could not be equalled as a medium for advertising La Grande school advantages.

The entire class of '11 is already hard at work although the annual will not be published for several months. The staff of the Annual is as follows: Editor in Chief . . . Geo. Currey Jr. Asst. Editor Mary Neill Asst. Editor Geo. Kerr Business Manager Roy Currey Asst. Business Manager, Elsa Wagner.
