OIL STORY WRONG

HUNT HAS NOT TAPPED LAKE OF OIL AS REPORTED.

How Story Got Started is Not Known Evidently Stock Boomer Plan.

What is evidently a huge and well planned scheme to dispose of Eastern Oregon Oil stock, has been uncovered by the return to this city of D. M. Hunt, who in conjunction with Grant Keyes is the owner of an oil well drill at Nyssa, in Eastern Oregon, but who, according to his own statement has not found new and more striking indications of oil in Eastern Oregon. A report to this effect was started Saturday when a man said to be C. O. Thomas of Vale, gave out a report in Boise that Mr. Hunt had tapped an oil lake near Nyssa. Thomas, in newspaper reports, said that a stampede for that section would surely follow, and evidently it has.

Mr. Hunt gives evidence to back up his sharp denial of the report. He has just recently returned from a two week's stay in Portland, and affirms that his well drill at Nyssa has been idle for more than that length of time. He is at a loss to know why or how the report had its inception, but he has gone there personally to probe the matter. Every indication points to an effort to boom oil stocks.

We are Still Threshing

Will Demonstrate Every Day This Week

AN IMBLER MAN SAYS:—"If you will start your factory at Imbler we will finance it for you."

A NORTH POWDER MAN SAYS:—"If you will come to North Powder we will see you through."

We are telling you this to show you what some level-headed business men think of it after seeing it run, men that know a piece of machinery when they see it.

We want the home of the AUTOMATIC THRESHER to be in La Grande if possible. GO SEE IT EAT HAY. Not some time next week, but TODAY.

At a capitalization of $30,000.00 it is far ahead of any investment that has ever been offered you (the little model will prove it.)

BEAVER CREEK WATER will make bull RUN some, and that is what the Automatic Thresher will do to the old machines.

If we happen to miss you with the subscription, do not feel slighted, but call on us as we cannot reach every place.
